Tampa Cigar Workers A Pictorial History:

Tampa Cigar Workers Robert P. Ingalls, Louis A. Pérez, 2003-01 Combining powerful images with compelling quotes Ingalls and Perez capture the extraordinary world the cigar workers created and the imprint it has left on the historical landscape even after its demise Nancy A Hewitt Rutgers University An inspiring and deeply moving account of how immigrant tobacco workers from Cuba Spain and Italy arrived and created communities in the Tampa Bay area accompanied by a remarkable collection of historic photographs of Tampa s cigar workers Gerald E Poyo St Mary s University From the founding of Ybor City in 1886 to the dispersal of Tampa s Latin population in the years following World War II this book documents the history of the Cuban Spanish and Italian immigrants who created the cigar industry in Tampa and the extraordinary multi ethnic community that flourished around it Over 200 photos capture this community s personalities and way of life while commentary drawn from newspaper accounts oral histories and archival documents identifies and explains each photograph s historical place and significance In linking the photographs with historical text the authors allow the cigar workers to tell their own story in the language of their day The rich photographic record around which the book is organized documents the lives of the immigrant cigar workers not only in the workplace but also in their vibrant neighborhoods in Ybor City and West Tampa Highlighting the diversity of the cigar workers community the book depicts the making of cigars the work culture local support for the Cuban War of Independence 1895 1898 unions and strikes community institutions such as mutual aid clubs leisure activities and social practices surrounding courtship marriage and death Focusing on the public spaces of work and society as well the private sphere of the home Tampa s Cigar Workers tells an inspiring and deeply moving story of how immigrant cigar workers from Cuba Spain and Italy carved out their space in Tampa while struggling to survive economically and defending their ideals and way of life Robert P Ingalls is professor of history at the University of South Florida Louis A Perez Jr is J Carlyle Sitterson Professor of History at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill

Tampa Cigar Workers Robert P. Ingalls, Louis A. Pérez, 2023-10-04 Florida Historical Society Harry T and Harriette V Moore Award From the founding of Ybor City in 1886 to the dispersal of Tampa s Latin population in the years following World War II Tampa s Cigar Workers documents the history of the Cuban Spanish and Italian immigrants who created the cigar industry in Tampa and the extraordinary multi ethnic community that flourished around it More than 200 photos capture this community s personalities and way of life while commentary drawn from newspaper accounts oral histories and archival documents identifies and explains each photograph s historical place and significance In linking the photographs with historical text the authors allow the cigar workers to tell their own story in the language of their day The rich photographic record around which the book is organized communicates the lives of these workers not only in the workplace but also in their vibrant Ybor City and West Tampa neighborhoods The book depicts the making of cigars the work culture local support for the Cuban War of Independence 1895 1898 unions and strikes community institutions such as mutual aid clubs leisure activities and social practices surrounding courtship marriage and death Highlighting the diversity of the cigar workers community the authors present an inspiring and deeply moving story of how these immigrants carved out their space in Tampa while struggling to survive economically and defending their ideals and way of life Ybor City Sarah McNamara,2023-02-16 Decades before Miami became Havana USA a wave of leftist radical working class women and men from prerevolutionary Cuba crossed the Florida Straits made Ybor City the global capital of the Cuban cigar industry and established the foundation of latinidad in the Sunshine State Located on the eastern edge of Tampa Ybor City was a neighborhood of cigar workers and Caribbean revolutionaries who sought refuge against the shifting tides of international political turmoil during the early half of the twentieth century Historian Sarah McNamara tells the story of immigrant and U S born Latinas/os who organized strikes marched against fascism and criticized U S foreign policy While many members of the immigrant generation maintained their dedication to progressive ideals for years to come those who came of age in the wake of World War II distanced themselves from leftist politics amidst the Red Scare and the wrecking ball of urban renewal This portrait of the political shifts that defined Ybor City highlights the underexplored role of women's leadership within movements for social and economic justice as it illustrates how people places and politics become who and what they are
