Tangata O Te Moana Nui

Silvina Montrul, Maria Polinsky

Tangata O Te Moana Nui:

Tangata Tangata Paul Spoonley, David George Pearson, 2004 Offers new insights into the shifting contours of ethnicity and ethnic identity in Aotearoa New Zealand It is the fourth book in a series that began in 1984 Some of the specifics of the issues have changed during the life of the series but the importance of ethnic identity the Treaty of Waitangi and what constitute appropriate policies for a bicultural and multicultural New Zealand has not These issues have remained at the forefront of popular political and academic debates

Migration and Transnationalism Helen Lee, Steve Tupai Francis, 2009-08-01 Pacific Islanders have engaged in transnational practices since their first settlement of the many islands in the region As they moved beyond the Pacific and settled in nations such as New Zealand the U S and Australia these practices intensified and over time have profoundly shaped both home and diasporic communities This edited volume begins with a detailed account of this history and the key issues in Pacific migration and transnationalism today The papers that follow present a range of case studies that maintain this focus on both historical and contemporary perspectives Each of the contributors goes beyond a narrowly economic focus to present the human face of migration and transnationalism exploring questions of cultural values and identity transformations in kinship intergenerational change and the impact on home communities Pacific migration and transnationalism are addressed in this volume in the context of increasing globalisation and growing concerns about the future social political and economic security of the Pacific region As the case studies presented here show the future of the Pacific depends in many ways on the ties diasporic Islanders maintain with their homelands

He Pitopito Korero no te Perehi Maori Jenifer Curnow, Jane McRae, 2013-11-01 This anthology reproduces full length news articles letters advertisements and obituaries from 19th century Maori language newspapers alongside their English language translations An excellent resource for students of the Maori language and culture Polynesian anthropology and sociology and New Zealand s colonial history this collection represents a range of views and experiences of the social cultural and political concerns of an indigenous people during New Zealand s early colonial period

Language and Minority Rights Stephen May, 2013-06-17 The Second Edition of this award winning volume in the field of language rights and language policy is a timely and useful revision of its core arguments and examples addressing new theoretical and empirical developments since its initial publication

Racism and Public Policy Y. Bangura, R. Stavenhagen, 2005-04-05 In a time when racism is on the rise as a source of conflict and social justice has been increasingly demanded by the civic society this collection stands as a timely reminder that to ignore the racial factor in the globalization forces is as mistaken as eliminating class analysis The essays published here supplement the literature of comparative race relations from the standpoint of the theory of institutional racism and its effect on public policies such as immigration citizenship security and policing

The Cambridge Handbook of Heritage Languages and Linguistics Silvina

Montrul, Maria Polinsky, 2021-11-25 Heritage languages are minority languages learned in a bilingual environment These include immigrant languages aboriginal or indigenous languages and historical minority languages In the last two decades heritage languages have become central to many areas of linguistic research from bilingual language acquisition education and language policies to theoretical linguistics Bringing together contributions from a team of internationally renowned experts this Handbook provides a state of the art overview of this emerging area of study from a number of different perspectives ranging from theoretical linguistics to language education and pedagogy Presenting comprehensive data on heritage languages from around the world it covers issues ranging from individual aspects of heritage language knowledge to broader societal educational and policy concerns in local global and international contexts Surveying the most current issues and trends in this exciting field it is essential reading for graduate students and researchers as well as language practitioners and other language professionals

Reppin' Keith L. Camacho, 2021-05-27 Explores the critical insights and creative energies of Pacific Islander youth From hip hop artists in the Marshall Islands to innovative multimedia producers in Vanuatu to racial justice writers in Utah Pacific Islander youth are using radical expression to transform their communities Exploring multiple perspectives about Pacific Islander youth cultures in such locations as Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Hawai i and Tonga this cross disciplinary volume foregrounds social justice methodologies and programs that confront the ongoing legacies of colonization incarceration and militarization The ten essays in this collection also highlight the ways in which youth throughout Oceania and the diaspora have embraced digital technologies to communicate across national boundaries mobilize sites of political resistance and remix popular media By centering Indigenous peoples creativity and self determination Reppin vividly illuminates the dynamic power of Pacific Islander youth to reshape the present and future of settler cities and other urban spaces in Oceania and beyond
