

No one has captured the spirit of Taoism as brilliantly as Alan Watts. Between 1926 and 1957 he gave a series of colloquial lectures that always drew an enthusiastic crowd of people and diverse interests. All who heard him came away enchanted with the East, and captivated by the ancient Chinese way.

In the time of his death, Alan Watts was widely regarded as a definitive guide to Taoism, drawn from his common lectures such as The Philosophy of the East, Being in the East, and Landmarks in Taoism. These works have now been compiled by his son, Taoism: Way Beyond Seeking, in essential readings of Alan Watts' most important lectures.

Containing all the energy and penetrating insight for which he is famous, it reveals his words to be as relevant and prophetic today as they were over 25 years ago.

Alan Watts (1915-1957) was an acclaimed writer, philosopher and academic. During his lifetime he held seminars and lectures throughout the USA on the nature of Taoism.
