Tapestry Of Hope:

A Tapestry of Hope (Lights of Lowell Book #1) Tracie Peterson, Judith Miller, 2004-05-01 Lights of Lowell book 1
Tapestry of Hope weaves together the heartrending and hope building stories of two young women Jasmine Wainwright is the sheltered daughter of a Mississippi plantation owner When her father strikes a deal to sell his cotton to Lowell mills through businessman Bradley Houston he throws an arranged marriage with Jasmine into the bargain Kiara O Neill and her brother escape starvation in Ireland by traveling to America as Bradley Houston s indentured servants But Bradley has more in mind for Kiara than she wants to imagine Both women suffer in the home of this unloving husband and merciless master Will God somehow bring hope to their lives

Tapestries of Hope, Threads of Love Marjorie Agosín, 2008 Tapestries of Hope Threads of Love tells the story of ordinary women living in terror and extreme poverty under General Pinochet s oppressive rule in Chile 1973 1989 These women defied the military dictatorship by embroidering their sorrow on scraps of cloth using needles and thread as one of the boldest means of popular protest and resistance in Latin America The arpilleras they made patchwork tapestries with scenes of everyday life and memorials to their disappeared relatives were smuggled out of Chile and brought to the world the story of their fruitless searches in jails morgues government offices and the tribunals of law for their husbands brothers and sons Marjorie Agosín herself a native of and exile from Chile has spent more than thirty years interviewing the arpilleristas and following their work She knows their stories intimately and knows too that none of them has ever found a disappeared relative alive Even though the dictatorship ended in 1989 and democracy returned to Chile no full account of the detained and disappeared has ever been offered Still many women maintain hope and continue to make arpilleras both in memory and as art This new edition of the book updated for students includes a reaction to the death of General Pinochet a chronology of Chile several new testimonies from arpilleristas in their own words and an introduction by Peter Kornbluh It retains a section of full color plates of arpilleras an afterword by Peter Winn and a foreword by Isabel Allende Students and interested readers will find the arpilleras beautiful moving and ultimately hopeful and the testimonies a powerful way to learn about the history of contemporary Latin America and the arpillera movement in Chile

Tapestry of Hope Alice Kern, 1988 Alice Kern was interned during World War II along with millions of other European Jews She experienced the horrors of both Auschwitz and Bergen Belsen and weighed less than fifty pounds when finally liberated by the American forces
