Tapping The Power Within A Path To Self Empowerment For Black Women:

Tapping the Power Within Iyanla Vanzant, 2009 The 20th anniversary edition of Vanzant's first published work offers a powerful path to self empowerment based on the revitalization of one's spiritual and ancestral roots Tapping the Power Within Iyanla Vanzant, 2018-11-27 The revised and expanded 20th anniversary edition of Iyanla Vanzant's first published work offers a powerful path to self empowerment through the revitalization of one's spiritual and ancestral roots Written with Iyanla's signature healing stories this classic guide to uniting the will with the spirit teaches that only you have the power to make a change for the better With chapters on basic breathing and meditation techniques setting up a home altar connecting with ancestors and guardian spirits and the extraordinary power of forgiveness this book is a perfect companion on the way toward the real you Known for teaching by principle and example this exclusive edition also contains Iyanla's special What I Know Now commentaries and an original CD These tools will challenge you to stop struggling and start recognizing that it is possible to reconcile your humanity with your divinity Whether you are a beginner on the path or a veteran in need of refreshment Iyanla's prescriptions can support your growth from the comfort of spiritual adolescence to the wisdom of spiritual maturity You no longer need to settle for the way things are you can open up to the way things can be if you dare to tap the power within Black Women's Mental Health Stephanie Y. Evans, Kanika Bell, Nsenga K. Burton, 2017-06-01 Creates a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness by merging theory and practice with both personal narratives and public policy This book offers a unique interdisciplinary and thoughtful look at the challenges and potency of Black women's struggle for inner peace and mental stability It brings together contributors from psychology sociology law and medicine as well as the humanities to discuss issues ranging from stress sexual assault healing self care and contemplative practice to health policy considerations and parenting Merging theory and practice with personal narratives and public policy the book develops a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness in order to provide tangible solutions The collection reflects feminist praxis and defines womanist peace in terms that reject both superwoman stereotypes and victim caricatures Also included for health professionals are concrete recommendations for understanding and treating Black women this book speaks not only to Black women but also educates a broader audience of policymakers and therapists about the complex and multilayered realities that we must navigate and the protests we must mount on our journey to find inner peace and optimal health from the Foreword by Linda Goler Blount Building Mentorship Networks to Support Black Women Bridget Turner Kelly, Sharon Fries-Britt, 2022-03-14 This new book in the Diverse Faculty in the Academy series pulls back the curtain on what Black women have done to mentor each other in higher education provides advice for navigating unwelcoming campus environments and explores avenues for institutions to support and foster minoritized women's success in the academy Chapter authors present critical approaches to advance equity and to achieve trust and transparency in the academy Drawing on examples of mentoring between Black women students faculty and administrators in and outside of the academy from diverse institutional contexts exploring the use of digital technologies and framed by theoretical concepts from a range of disciplines this important volume provides insights on mentoring that can be employed across all of higher education to support the success of Black women faculty Full of actionable steps that institutional leaders can take to support the network of mentors it takes to be successful in the academy this book is a must read for department and university leaders faculty and graduate students in Higher Education interested in supporting and fostering mentoring for those most vulnerable in the academic pathway for success

Mothering Across Cultures Angelita Dianne Reyes, 2002

Soul Talk Akasha Gloria Hull, 2001-04-01 A celebration of the journey of African American women toward a new spirituality grounded in social awareness black American tradition metaphysics and heightened creativity Features illuminating insights from Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara Lucille Clifton Dolores Kendrick Sonia Sanchez Michele Gibbs Geraldine McIntosh Masani Alexis DeVeaux and Namonyah Soipan By a widely published scholar poet and activist who has been interviewed by the press television and National Public Radio's All Things Considered From the last part of the twentieth century through today African American women have experienced a revival of spirituality and creative force fashioning a uniquely African American way to connect with the divine In Soul Talk Akasha Gloria Hull examines this multifaceted spirituality that has both fostered personal healing and functioned as a formidable weapon against racism and social injustice Through fascinating and heartfelt conversations with some of today's most creative and powerful women women whose spirituality encompasses among others traditional Christianity Tibetan Buddhism Native American teachings meditation the I Ching and African derived ancestral reverence the author explores how this new spiritual consciousness is manifested how it affects the women who practice it and how its effects can be carried to others Using a unique and readable blend of interviews storytelling literary critique and practical suggestions of ways readers can incorporate similar renewal into their daily lives Soul Talk shows how personal and social change are possible through reconnection with the spirit

Critical Perspectives on Interreligious Education, 2020-03-31 The editors of Experiments in Empathy Critical Reflections on Interreligious Education have assembled a volume that spans multiple religious traditions and offers innovative methods for teaching and designing interreligious learning This groundbreaking text includes established interreligious educators and emerging scholars who expand the vision of this field to include critical studies decolonial approaches and exciting pedagogical developments The book includes voices that are often left out of other comparative theology or interreligious education texts Scholars from evangelical Muslim Catholic

Protestant Jewish religiously hybrid and other background enrich the existing models for interreligious classrooms The book is particularly relevant at a time when religion is so often harnessed for division and hatred By examining the roots of racism xenophobia sexism and their interaction with religion that contribute to inequity the volume offers real world educational interventions The content is in high demand as are the authors who contributed to the volume Contributors are Scott Alexander Judith A Berling Monica A Coleman Reuven Firestone Christine Hong Jennifer Howe Peace Munir Jiwa Nancy Fuchs Kreimer Tony Ritchie Rachel Mikva John Thatanamil Timur Yuskaev The Search for Wholeness and Diaspora Literacy in Contemporary African American Literature Silvia Castro-Borrego, 2011-05-25 This volume has as a cohesive argument the exploration of the different manifestations of the search for wholeness and spirituality in the writings of contemporary African American women writers covering different literary genres such as fiction both novels and short stories drama and poetry Together with the issue of spirituality the African American search for wholeness is analyzed as a source of creativity and agency As expressed in the contemporary literature of black women writers starting in the 1980s the search for wholeness reflects a beauty realized through the healing of the spirit and the body and is a process that takes on dimensions of reconciling the past and the present the mythical and the real the spiritual and the physical all in the context of an emerging world view that welcomes synthesis and expects both synthesis and generative contradictions The book will be a valuable collection for scholars of African American literature comparative American Ethnic literature American literature and spirituality as well as women s studies In addition it will be an important text for both undergraduate and graduate students in those fields As Professor Johnnella Butler 2006 points out the African American search for wholeness is tightly linked to the search for freedom and agency Ever since the 19th century African American writers have given expression to an African American self which functions in Western civilization simultaneously as a colonized other and an assertive self Due to the continuous ordeal of the African Diaspora this self is caught in between the binaries proposed by the material and the spiritual world seeking a balance where the person can become whole The search for wholeness feeds from cultural roots that imply the presence of ancestral spiritualism rememory and double consciousness Contemporary black women writers reflect the metaphor of building spiritual bridges seeking the possibilities of building a bridge to the archetypal African past that is carried in their memories as a presence that offers sustenance via spiritual reconnection Their works seek to bridge the gap between the myths and traditions of the past and contemporary African American culture The texts included in this collection are examples of writing as an exercise of what V v Clark calls Diaspora literacy The texts written by contemporary African American women writers explicitly show how to recognize and read the cultural signs left scattered along the road of progress In this way material acquisition is achieved along with cultural dispossession becoming a metaphor for the history of the African in America The powerful message is that one should not exclude the other Out of the Mouths of Babes Kimberly K.
