Tasman's Legacy The New Zealand Dutch Connection:

Tasman's Legacy Hank Schouten, 1992 Studie over de Nederlandse emigranten naar Nieuw Zeeland Strangers Arrive Leonard Bell, 2017-11-17 None of us had the faintest idea where we were going but during 1938-39 the town Christchurch was made strangely interesting for anyone like myself with the scattered arrival of the refugees All at once there were people among us who were actually from Vienna or Chemnitz or Berlin who knew the work of Schoenberg and Gropius Anthony Alpers 1985 From the 1930s through the 1950s a substantial number of forced migrants refugees from Nazism displaced people after World War II and escapees from Communist countries arrived in New Zealand from Europe Among them were an extraordinary group of artists and writers photographers and architects whose European modernism radically reshaped the arts in this country In words and pictures Strangers Arrive tells their story Ranging across the arts from photographer Irene Koppel to art dealer and printmaker Kees Hos architect Imric Porsolt to writer Antigone Kefala Leonard Bell takes us inside New Zealand's bookstores and coffeehouses studios and galleries to introduce us to a compelling body of artistic work He asks key questions How were migrants received by New Zealanders How did displacement and settlement in New Zealand transform their work How did the arrival of European modernists intersect with the burgeoning nationalist movement in the arts in New Zealand Strangers Arrive introduces us to a talented group of aliens who were critical catalysts for change in New Zealand culture Women Together New Zealand. Department of Internal Affairs. Historical Branch, 1993 132 short histories of organisations grouped in thirteen sections Introduction Languages of New Zealand Allan Bell, Ray Harlow, Donna Starks, 2005 Publisher Description Bilingual Children's Language and Literacy Development Roger Barnard, Ted Glynn, 2003-01-01 This book contains case studies relating the experience of bilingual children in various settings in New Zealand primary schools The contexts include a Maori bilingual school a Samoan bilingual unit and mainstream classrooms which cater for immigrant and deaf children Suggestions for educational policy teacher development and research are made Settlers Jock Phillips, Terry Hearn, 2013-10-01 Analyzing everything from shipping records to death registers this book takes an in depth look at New Zealand's European ancestors exploring the origins of the island's national identity Using individual examples of immigrants and their families it examines their geographical origins their occupational and class backgrounds and their religion and values to get a better understanding of the lives and motivations of New Zealand's first settlers Paradise Reforged James Belich, 2002-02-28 Paradise Reforged picks up where Making Peoples left off taking the story of the New Zealanders from the 1880s to the end of the twentieth century It begins with the search for Better Britain and ends by analyzing the modern Maori resurgence the new Pakeha consciousness and the implications of a reinterpreted past for New Zealand's future Along the way the book deals with subjects ranging from sport and sex to childhood and popular culture Critics hailed Making Peoples as brilliant and the most ambitious book yet written on New Zealand's past Paradise Reforged its successor adopts a similarly incisive original sweep across the New Zealand historical landscape in confronting the myths of the past That some of its themes are uncomfortably close to the present makes the result all the more fascinating Keeping a Low Profile Brigitte Bönisch-Brednich,2002 This oral history of German immigration to New Zealand is based on extensive field research including 102 life history interviews and in depth study of archival sources and secondary literature Issues of national and individual identity are also addressed

One-way Ticket to New Zealand Helen Baumer,2003 Frankfurt M Berlin Bern Bruxelles New York Oxford Wien Over the past decade more than 200 Swiss have settled in New Zealand each year with the number of registered Swiss New Zealanders now totalling some 6000 Yet to date very little research has been done on Swiss migration to New Zealand One Way Ticket to New Zealand presents the available material on early contacts between Switzerland and New Zealand These include John Webber Captain Cook s artist who was almost certainly the first Swiss to set foot in New Zealand in the year 1777 as well as early settlers like Felix Hunger who established himself as a blacksmith in Taranaki and then returned to the Swiss canton of Graubunden to fetch further settlers The study focuses particularly on immigration after the Second World War and tells the stories of individual Swiss who have settled in New Zealand during this period They include a deer farmer a successful novelist a travel agent a restaurant owner a homesick Ticinese and a professional drummer Based on detailed interviews with Swiss living in New Zealand it examines their reasons for leaving Switzerland and for choosing New Zealand and explores the extent to which they have integrated into New Zealand society It also presents and analyses data on immigration after the Second World War taken from both census and Swiss Embassy sources Contents Migration Swiss migration Switzerland New Zealand The Low Countries ,1996
