Technology In American Literature:

Technology in American Literature Kathleen N. Monahan, James S. Nolan, 2000-07-05 Is technology a boon to humanity providing us with the means to further the dignity and prosperity of the human race Or is it a deceptive lure that will draw society into a mind numbing state where our essence is stripped and we become machines ourselves This reader draws together works that explore both answers to the question of technology s beneficence Technology in American Literature is a great reference source for literature classes as well as for technological institutions seeking to introduce humanities into the curriculum The Fabrication of America Inger Hunnerup Dalsgaard, 2000 The Influence of Machines and Technology on American Literature of the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries Robert Kendall Dodge, 1967 American Literature and Science Robert Scholnick, 2014-07-11 Literature and science are two disciplines are two disciplines often thought to be unrelated if not actually antagonistic But Robert J Scholnick points out that these areas of learning up through the beginning of the nineteenth century were understood as parts of a unitary endeavor By mid century they had diverged but literature and science have continued to interact conflict and illuminate each other In this innovative work twelve leaders in this emerging interdisciplinary field explore the long engagement of American writers with science and uncover science s conflicting meanings as a central dimension of the nation s conception of itself Reaching back to the Puritan poet minister physician Edward Taylor who wrote at the beginning of the scientific revolution and forward to Thomas Pynchon novelist of the cybernetic age this collection of original essays contains essential work on major writers including Franklin Jefferson Poe Emerson Thoreau Twain Hart Crane Dos Passos and Charles Olson Through its exploration of the ways that American writers have found in science and technology a vital imaginative stimulus even while resisting their destructive applications this book points towards a reconciliation and integration within culture An innovative look at a neglected dimension of our literary tradition American Literature and Science stands as both a definition of the field and an invitation to others to continue and extend new modes of inquiry The Assault on Progress J. Adam Johns, 2008 A belief in progress is a fundamental ethos in American history and culture The Assault on Progress probes American literary works that challenge the prevailing notion of technology as a manifestation of progress J Adam Johns argues that the idea of technology as destiny has long been explored and undercut in American literary works and that literature remains a crucial site for ongoing debates in this area BOOK JACKET The Continuum Encyclopedia of American Literature Steven R. Technology and Postmodern Subjectivity in Don DeLillo's Novels Randy Laist, 2010 More than any other major American author Don DeLillo has examined the manner in which contemporary American consciousness has been shaped by the historically unique incursion into daily life of information military and consumer technologies In DeLillo's fictions technological apparatuses are not merely set pieces in the characters' environments nor merely tools to move the plot along they are sites of mystery and magic whirlpools of space time and convex mirrors of identity Television sets filmic images automobiles airplanes telephones computers and nuclear bombs are not simply objects in the world for DeLillo's characters they are psychological phenomena that shape the possibilities for action influence the nature of perception and incorporate themselves into the fabric of memory and identity DeLillo is a phenomenologist of the contemporary technoscape and an ecologist of our new kind of natural habitat Through a close reading of four DeLillo novels Technology and Postmodern Subjectivity in Don DeLillo's Novels examines the variety of modes in which DeLillo's fictions illustrate the technologically mediated confluence of his human subjects and the field of cultural objects in which they discover themselves The model of interactionism between human beings and technological instruments that is implicit in DeLillo's writing suggests significant applications both to the study of other contemporary novelists as well as to contemporary cultural studies

American Fiction Since 1940 Tony Hilfer, 2014-09-25 In this remarkable book Tony Hilfer provides a major survey of the wealth of post war American fiction He analyses the major modes and genres of writing from realist to postmodernist metafiction and black humour the fiction of social protest women's writing and the traditions of African American Southern and Jewish American fiction Key writers discussed include William Faulkner Norman Mailer Ralph Ellison Saul Bellow Joseph Heller Vladimir Nabokov and Joyce Carol Oates The book concludes by exploring contemporary trends through detailed case studies of Donald Barthelme and Toni Morrison

Post-World War II Masculinities in British and American Literature and Culture Stefan Horlacher, Kevin Floyd, 2016-04-08 Analyzing literary texts plays films and photographs within a transatlantic framework this volume explores the inseparable and mutually influential relationship between different forms of national identity in Great Britain and the United States and the construction of masculinity in each country The contributors take up issues related to how certain kinds of nationally specific masculine identifications are produced how these change over time and how literature and other forms of cultural representation eventually question and deconstruct their own myths of masculinity Focusing on the period from the end of World War II to the 1980s the essays each take up a topic with particular cultural and historical resonance whether it is hypermasculinity in early cold war films the articulation of male anxieties in plays by Arthur Miller David Mamet and Sam Shepard the evolution of photographic depictions of masculinity from the 1960s to the 1980s or the representations of masculinity in the fiction of American and British writers such as Patricia Highsmith Richard Yates John Braine Martin Amis Evan S Connell James Dickey John Berger Philip Roth Frank Chin and Maxine Hong Kingston The editors and contributors make a case for the importance of understanding the larger context for the emergence of more pluralistic culturally differentiated and ultimately transnational masculinities arguing that it is possible to conceptualize and emphasize difference and commonality simultaneously
