Creative Activities for the Early Years Barbara Melling, 2010-11-17 Creative Activities for the Early Years contains over 160 art and music activities for use with children aged 0-5. These tried and tested activities which include songs, rhymes and story suggestions are ideal for use in all early years settings. Whether your topic is the autumn, the Chinese New Year or the coastline, you can be sure that children will find the art and music ideas in this book interesting and entertaining. The activities encourage children to use their imagination to communicate ideas and develop their gross and fine motor skills. The activities are grouped by popular early years themes and can be used as a complete programme or as a dip in resource.

Story Hour Jeri Kladder, 2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children. For the librarian, it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books. But coming up with new ideas that hold the children's attention can be trying. Until now. Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach. All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one-hour programs: barnyard animals, the Caldecott Medal, colors, families, a storytelling feast, the five senses, reptiles and amphibians, and around the world. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All story hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story poetry and song selections, additional titles, and a full description of the activity. The Giant Encyclopedia of Monthly Activities for Children 3 to 6 Kathy Charner, Maureen Murphy, Charlie Clark, 2006 A collection of over 600 activities for the primary classroom that provides creative ideas for all topics across the curriculum that helps to develop both literacy and imaginative play. Babycare: Everything you need to know Ann Peters, 2011-02-21 A new baby's arrival can be incredibly daunting as parents need to master a whole new set of skills in a very short period of time.

Babycare: Everything you need to know offers all the basic fundamental information that parents need in order to ease them through those first hours, days, weeks, and months. It covers the core skills: how to change, dress, bathe, hold, carry, feed, comfort, and soothe a newborn baby up to his first birthday. Large step-by-step photographs with short direct captions illustrate all the necessary stages of essential care, such as how to change a diaper, how to put on a sleepsuit, and the best positions for breastfeeding.

Let's Grandparent JoAn Vaughan, 2008-12-01 With baby boomers swelling the ranks of grandparents, there is a large and growing audience for Let's Grandparent. There are no other books on the market with the variety of content or perspective presented in this book. With its emphasis upon the crucial early years, it has special appeal for new grandparents and those with young grandchildren. During this honeymoon period, grandparents are typically enthusiastic about their new role and eager to learn all they can to make the most of time spent with their grandchildren. They want it to be fun, have an educational value, and strengthen close, intimate bonds. Let's Grandparent shows them how to achieve these goals through an in-depth understanding of child development, over four hundred kid-tested activities, and tips for simple but satisfying experiences together. The author brings together her personal experience as an enthusiastic grandparent with her professional career in early childhood education to create this insightful and enjoyable guide The intended audience for this book is grandparents with young grandchildren especially targeted for a well educated middle class audience and grandparents of both men and women in their late middle age and early retirement years Parents of young children who often are looking for ways to encourage closer connections between their children and their grandparents Anyone wishing to form a close relationship with a young child such as other relatives or mentors to young children Participants of workshops and classes for grandparents Early childhood education National Association for the Education of Young Children and Association of Childhood Education International
