

The elevator, after rocketing through an enormous expanse of empty space at incredible velocity, began to descend again. This time, Romsioletto could have no doubts. "Goodness gracious!" he exclaimed. "We're landing on the moon. What am I doing here?"

The famous lunar craters were rapidly coming closer.

Romsioletto darted the fingers of his free hand away from the tray to the buttons on the elevator, and he was about to push one when he commanded himself to "Hold on!" before randomly pushing just any old button. "Let's give this a little thought," he said to himself.

Romsioletto hurried out of the elevator cabin without even bothering to turn around and close the doors behind him. This time, he went upstairs on foot. He knocked at the door of apartment 14 and listened, head down, silent, to the scolding he got from Marchese Venanzio. "Well, where have you been all this time? Do you know that it's been no less than fourteen minutes since I ordered those damned beers and this double-damned iced tea? If it had been Yuri Gagarin instead of you, he would already have landed on the moon."

Even further, thought Romsioletto, but he didn't utter a word. And luckily, the drinks were still perfectly ice cold.
