Television Program Master Index:

Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 1996 Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress This work makes the television researcher s job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood

Television Series and Specials Scripts, 1946-1992, 2009-10-21 In the early days of television many of its actors writers producers and directors came from radio This crossover endowed the American Radio Archives with a treasure trove of television documents The collected scripts span more than 40 years of American television history from live broadcasts of the 1940s to the late 1980s They also cover the entire spectrum of television entertainment programming including comedies soap operas dramas westerns and crime series The archives cover nearly 1 200 programs represented by more than 6 000 individual scripts Includes an index of personal names program and episode titles and production companies as well as a glossary of industry terms The A to Z of African-American Television Kathleen Fearn-Banks, 2009-08-04 From Amos n Andy to The Jeffersons to Family Matters to Chappelle s Show this volume covers it all with entries on all different genres animation documentaries sitcoms sports talk shows and variety shows and performers such as Muhammad Ali Louis Armstrong Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Additionally information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations This book has hundreds of cross referenced entries from A to Z in the dictionary and a list of acronyms with their corresponding definitions The extensive chronology shows who did what and when and the introduction traces the often difficult circumstances African American performers faced compared to the more satisfactory present situation Finally the bibliography is useful to those readers who want to know more about specific topics or persons

Mass Communications Research Resources Christopher H. Sterling, James K. Bracken, Susan B. Hill, 2016-05-06 This reference book is designed as a road map for researchers who need to find specific information about American mass communication as expeditiously as possible Taking a topical approach it integrates publications and organizations into subject focused chapters for easy user reference The editors define mass communication to include print journalism and electronic media and the processes by which they communicate messages to their audiences Included are newspaper magazine radio television cable and newer electronic media industries Within that definition this volume offers an indexed inventory of more than 1 400 resources on most aspects of American mass communication history technology economics content audience research policy and regulation The material featured represents the carefully considered judgment of three experts two of them librarians plus four contributors from different industry venues The primary focus is on the domestic American print and electronic media industries Although there is no claim to a complete census of all materials on print journalism and electronic media what is available is now too vast for any single guide the most important and useful items are here The emphasis is on material published since 1980 though useful older resources are included as well Each chapter is designed to stand alone providing the most important and useful resources of a primary nature organizations and documents as well as secondary books and reports In addition online resources and internet citations are included where possible

The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English language Historical Dictionary of African American Television Kathleen Fearn-Banks, Anne Burford-Johnson, 2014-10-03 From Amos n Andy to The Jeffersons to Family Matters to Chappelle s Show this volume has all different genres animation documentaries sitcoms sports talk shows and variety shows and performers such as Muhammad Ali Louis Armstrong Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Additionally information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations This second edition covers the history of African Americans on television from the beginning of national television through the present day including chronology introductory essay appendixes bibliography over 1000 cross referenced entries on actors performers producers directors news and sports journalists entries on series specials and movies relevant to African American themes and African American casts This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the history of African Americans and their impact on television

American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing, 1999-03 Teletext Leonard R. Graziplene, 2000 Teletext was a technology developed in Europe in the late 1970s and perfected in North America during the early 1980s by the Canadian Department of Communications and AT T Teletext was a digital database transmitted along with a regular television signal It enabled broadcast PBS and cable statio

No more giants Jessica Kelly, 2023-01-24 Architecture is more than buildings and architects It also involves photographers writers advertisers and broadcasters as well as the people who finance and live in the buildings Using the career of the critic J M Richards as a lens this book takes a new perspective on modern architecture Richards served as editor of The Architectural Review from 1937 to 1971 during which time he consistently argued that modernism was integrally linked to vernacular architecture not through style but through the principle of being an anonymous expression of a time and public spirit Exploring the continuities in Richards s ideas throughout his career disrupts the existing canon of architectural history which has focused on abrupt changes linked to individual pioneers encouraging us to think again about who is studied in architectural history and how they are researched

Women and American Television Denise Lowe, 1999 Although limited in focus to the role of women in and on television this work is notable for unearthing the more obscure personalities and programs not covered by other television encyclopedias Includes bibliography several appendixes and a subject index BOOK JACKET The Encyclopedia of Television, Cable, and Video R.M. Reed, M.K. Reed, 2012-12-06 This is a major reference work about the overlapping fields of television cable and video With both technical and popular appeal this book covers the following areas advertising agencies associations companies unions broadcasting cable casting engineering events general production and programming Racism Albert J.

Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Television Program Master Index
Charles V. Dintone, 2003 This updated and expanded edition of the highly acclaimed 1996 reference work unique Booklist RBB absolutely invaluable ARBA comprehensive Rettig on Reference essential for historians The TV Collector does researchers a great service by providing a single index to over 900 books and other materials that include information on almost 2 000 television shows New to this edition are journal articles books devoted to only one show dissertations and websites where more information about a particular television show can be found It also includes many new books covering more than one show that have been published since the first edition was released Shows aired on the WB and UPN networks have been included and several syndicated and cable shows have also been indexed Most of the works indexed deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies and memoirs of people who were influential in television books about communication and the media published Congressional hearings on such issues as television violence and books geared toward fans are also indexed Guide to Record Retention Requirements, 1994 The Research Process

Coville, 2002-06-25 Science and technology had a significant influence on American culture and thought in the years immediately following World War II The new wonders of science and the threat of the Soviet Union as a powerful new enemy made science fiction a popular genre in radio television and film Mutant creatures spawned by radioactive energy and intergalactic dictators unleashing horrific weapons upon Earth were characteristic of science fiction at the time and served as warnings to the very real dangers posed by the atomic age This work examines science and science fiction in American culture beginning in the year World War II ended and going to 1962 the year of John Glenn's orbital flight and the Cuban Missile Crisis The radio work of Arch Oboler and the significance of his Rocket from Manhattan which aired only one month after the dropping of the first atomic bomb and asked serious questions about the use of atomic energy are examined Other topics are the conflict between the free world and the Communist world in the context of science fiction plot lines the dangers of science as shown in films like Godzilla Them The Day the Earth Stood Still and radio and television programs the flying saucer phenomenon and the treatment of such stories in the media with special attention given to the 1956 documentary UFO the changing and more positive depictions of scientists television programs like Flash Gordon and Space Patrol the shift in the balance of world power due to the successful launching of Sputnik I by the Russians in 1957 the end of the world theme in science fiction and the American journey into space Journalist 1 & C.
