Television Today And Tomorrow The Granada Guildhall Lectures:

Independent Television in Britain Jeremy Potter, 2016-07-27 The ITV network was designed as a federation of companies different in size and character jointly and severally constructing programme schedules in which strands of entertainment were interwoven with news bulletins drama with sport feature films with documentaries church services with broadcasting for schools The purpose of this volume is to convey some impression of diversity by illustrating and illuminating the rich assortment of companies and programmes making up ITV's overall service to the public in the operation of a plural system on a single television channel during a peak period in British broadcasting

The Media and Political Violence Richard Clutterbuck, 1983-02-17

The History of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom: Volume V: Competition Asa Briggs, 1995-03-23 Part of a five volume history of the rise and development of broadcasting in the United Kingdom

Independent Television in Britain Bernard Sendall, Jeremy Potter, 1990-07-08 A companion to volume 3 Politics and Control 1968-80 this book covers aspects of the same period and completes the history of Independent Television from its origin and foundation to the end of 1980

Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1981

Power Without Responsibility James Curran, Jean Seaton, 2024-09-06 This book attacks the conventional history of the press as a story of progress offers a critical defence and history of public service broadcasting provides a myth busting account of the internet gives a subtle account of the impact of social media and explores key debates about the role and politics of the media Power Without Responsibility has become a standard textbook on media and other courses but it has also gone beyond an academic audience to reach a wider public Hailed as a book that has cracked the canon by the Times Higher Educational Supplement it has been translated into five languages In 2019 it was awarded the International Communication Association's Fellows Book Award This ninth edition is based on a major overhaul of its content to take account of new developments such as generative AI and new scholarship in the field It also contains a new chapter on the transformed opportunity for a reformed and buccaneering public service broadcasting in the face of automated misinformation and social division locally nationally and internationally This trailblazing text is essential reading for all students and scholars interested in British media and contemporary media and society

Kenneth Clark James Stourton, 2016-11-01 The definitive biography of this brilliant polymath director of the National Gallery author patron of the arts social lion and singular pioneer of television that also tells the story of the arts in the twentieth century through his astonishing life Kenneth Clark's thirteen part 1969 television series Civilisation established him as a globally admired figure Clark was prescient in making this series the upheavals of the century the Cold War among others convinced him of the power of barbarism and the fragility of culture He would burnish his image with two memoirs that artfully omitted the more complicated details of his life Now drawing on a vast previously unseen archive James Stourton reveals the formidable intellect and the private man behind the figure who effortlessly dominated the art world for more than half a century his privileged upbringing his interest in art history beginning at Oxford his remarkable early successes At 27 he was keeper of Western Art at the Ashmolean in Oxford and at 29 the youngest director of The National Gallery During the war he arranged for its entire collection to be hidden in slate mines in Wales and organized packed concerts of classical music at the Gallery to keep up the spirits of Londoners during the bombing WWII helped shape his belief that art should be brought to the widest audience a social and moral position that would inform the rest of his career Television became a means for this message when he was appointed the first chairman of the Independent Television Authority Stourton reveals the tortuous state of his marriage during and after the war his wife s alcoholism and the aspects of his own nature that he worked to keep hidden A superb work of biography Kenneth Clark is a revelation of its remarkable subject

A Licence to be Different Maggie Brown,2020-12-10 Traces the history and development of Channel 4 one of the UK s best loved and most controversial TV channels Identifies key figures and signature programmes such as Brookside The Big Breakfast and Wife Swap as well as successful American imports including Friends and Sex and the City

The Future of Broadcasting Social Morality Council,2013-06-19 At the time when this book was originally published broadcasting in Britain had become a huge industry undergoing major changes There were questions over the release of a new television channel and commercial radio This Report was commissioned to aid the citizen at the receiving end of the new technologies who could feel very remote from the plans and decisions It represents a wide range of views and interests to examine the important questions which were arising from broadcasting from the point of view of the public benefit It sets out clearly and fully the background and the arguments in broadcasting debate The report made many interesting and far reaching recommendations and looking back this reveals a lot about the inner processes of the broadcasting organisations of the time This is a fascinating glimpse of past questions and solutions in which parallels can be drawn with the present time

The Economist ,1963-03 Leading Contemporary Economists Steven Pressman,2008-10-01 This book describes the important contributions of several contemporary economic figures including recent Nobel Laureates Describing their work and putting it into an historical perspective these chapters explain how their work constitutes a major contribution to the discipline of economics and how it has broadened economic science Co Editor of

BBC Handbook British Broadcasting Corporation,1978 Conflicts Of Interest Tony Benn,2013-01-31 In this the fourth volume of Tony Benn s diaries the Labour Government continues its fight for survival Important developments are occurring both at home and internationally In Britain Benn as Secretary of State for Energy is directly involved with Windscale and decisions about nuclear power and oil policy Abroad the Government is concerned with Carter s reappraisal of American foreign policy the overthrow of the Shah of Iran and problems of EEC membership In the Labour party itself new forces of radicalism and reform are emerging resulting in changes in Labour s policies and the ultimate formation of the SDP Labour s unsuccessful economic policy and the widening rift with the labour movement lead to the Winter of Discontent and a near state of emergency With Labour voters defecting the scene is set for the Thatcher years

The Legacy of John Kenneth

Galbraith STEVEN PRESSMAN,2013-10-18 When John Kenneth Galbraith passed away on April 29 2006 the economics profession lost one of its true giants And this is not just because Galbraith was an imposing figure at 6 feet 9 inches tall Throughout his life Galbraith advised Presidents made important professional contributions to the discipline of economics and also tried to explain economic ideas to the general public This volume pays tribute to Galbraith s life and career by explaining some of his major contributions to the canon of economic ideas The papers describe the series of unique contributions that Galbraith made in many different areas He was a founder of the Post Keynesian view of money and a proponent of the Post Keynesian view that price controls were necessary to deal with the problem of inflation in a modern economy where large firms already control prices and prices are not determined by the market He promulgated the view that firms manipulate individual preferences and tastes through advertising and other means of persuasion and he drew out the economic implications of this view He was a student of financial frauds and euphoria and a forerunner of the Post Keynesian Minskean view of finance and how financial markets really work This book was published as a special issue of the Review of Political Economy BBC Annual Report and Handbook ,1977 Independent Television in Britain P. Bonner,L. Aston,2002-12-13 Success out of near disaster finances taken to the edge of bankruptcy resignations this volume tells the dramatic stories of the major new commercial television developments in Britain between 1981 92 This is an authoritative account from the people involved and from official documents of the launches and first ten years of Channel 4 and TV am the expansion of cable television and early difficulties of satellite broadcasting Symposium 2 on Public Role and Systems of Broadcasting ,1982 Socialist Commentary ,1968 The Economics of John Kenneth Galbraith Stephen P. Dunn,2010-11-11 The recent financial crisis has once again seen John Kenneth Galbraith return to the bestseller lists Yet despite the continued popular success of his works Galbraith s contribution to economic theory is rarely recognized by today s economists This book redresses the balance by providing an introductory and sympathetic discussion of Galbraith s theoretical contributions introducing the reader to his economics and his broader vision of the economic process The book highlights and explains key features of Galbraith s economic thought including his penetrating critique of society his distinctive methodology his specific brand of Keynesianism and his original but largely ignored contribution to the theory of the firm It also presents for the first time a detailed examination of Galbraith s monetary economics and revisits his analysis of financial euphoria This unique work seeks to rehabilitate Galbraith s contribution setting out several directions for possible future research in the Galbraithian tradition The Listener and BBC Television Review ,1961
