Public Television in Poland Agnieszka Węglińska, 2021-10-03 This book examines the professional activity of public television journalists in Poland operating in the still unstable system of a post communist state to demonstrate how the media can work in the public interest to strengthen democracy Drawing on in depth interviews with Telewizja Polska TVP journalists the author shows how public television in Poland has become highly politicised and commercialised and must defend against constant attacks on its autonomy She draws parallels with the media systems in Hungary and the Czech Republic to analyse potential legal solutions and to highlight how Poland's journalists are subject to influences from the political class as well as from the market a situation brought about by flawed legislation the absence of a political culture an inefficient internal regulating process and lack of suitable training for the journalists themselves Adding an important perspective on recently developed media systems this book will be an important resource for scholars and students of journalism media studies media industries politics and media history Parental Control of Television Broadcasting Monroe E. Price, Stefaan Verhulst, 2002-01-12 This project originally developed for the European Community examines parental roles in controlling television programs watched by children in Europe The structure of the study includes an analysis of the technical devices available to assist in parental control of television broadcasting services including descriptions of devices their cost availability and the infrastructure needed to introduce them a corresponding analysis of potential ratings or labeling systems to work in conjunction with or in the place of technical devices enabling a comparative analysis of rating systems used in film video and online services and an overview and assessment of the educational and awareness measures in the field of protection of minors and harmful content providing the data for the review of available considerations in this field of viewer literacy In addition to these main strands of analysis the study provides for background information and analysis in the following areas an overview of the main media theories focusing on the effect and impact of specific types of content on children and their behavior an assessment of the economic impact and social efficacy of different protective measures and a comparison of the regulatory contexts and rating systems for film video television and online services concerning the protection of minors from harmful content This volume is intended for scholars and students in comparative media studies media policy and regulation Developing Technologies for Television Captioning United States.
