Preaching Mark's Gospel Richard A. Jensen, 1996 In a classic case of failing to see the forest for the trees Jensen a homiletics professor and author of two works on narrative preaching says that preachers tend to analyze biblical books to glean the slightest bits of exegetical data yet miss the thrust of the overarching story they try to convey Jensen contends that preachers get too caught up in an analytical left brained mentality that obscures the power and meaning of the good news story In these pages Jensen helps us approach Mark's gospel with eyes wide open rather than with microscope in hand He treats Mark's gospel as a narrative whole and challenges preachers to tell the gospel's story to their congregations In doing so Jensen emphasizes the strength of biblical stories He says that these stories are powerful in and of themselves and that they work without much explanatory help The problem is that listeners never hear the entire story because it's always told to them in bits and pieces Jensen's adaptation of what Robert Alter author of The Art of Biblical Narrative calls narrative analogy assumes that parallel acts or situations are used to comment on each other in biblical narrative In other words if Mark told story B to flesh out the reality of story A then perhaps preachers today can do the same thing in their preaching Students of Jensen have enthusiastically embraced this approach This is great we never get to hear them stories whole How did it ever occur to us that we could improve on the story of the Prodigal Son for example by reducing it to ideas Richard A Jensen teaches homiletics at Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque Iowa and Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago He is best known for his ten year stint as preacher for the national radio program Lutheran Vespers He has also produced a television series titled Reflections and one titled Rhapsody Church Economist, 1901 Political Violence Panu-Matti Pöykkö, Pamela Slotte Russo, Viljami Salo, 2024-11-18 This volume brings together scholars from intellectual history social sciences philosophy and theology to evaluate central questions concerning political violence and aggression This multidisciplinary collection of essays critically investigates forms and modes of justification of political violence from historical and contemporary perspectives especially within the context of the development of the idea of Europe and modern European identity What is meant by political violence and aggression When and under which conditions is it justified Who has the right to exercise it and against whom Answers differ depending on various factors such as pre established ends available resources and possibilities of action historical and socio economic context the ideological political and religious theological background of the actors The volume pays special attention to a how the above questions have been addressed and answered political philosophical and theological thought and b what kind of ideological currents and historical events lay at the background of such considerations Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1955 Preaching from

Home Gracia Grindal, 2011-08 This volume by Gracia Grindal introduces English speaking readers to several significant yet unsung Lutheran women hymn writers from the sixteenth century to the present After a brief introductory discussion of Elisabeth Cruciger the first woman hymn writer of the Reformation Grindal provides fascinating profiles of these talented Scandinavian women who preached from home Dorothe Engelbretsdatter Birgitte Hertz Boye Berthe Canutte Aarflot Lina Sandell Britt G Hallqvist and Lisbeth Smedegaard Andersen Grindal not only gives a biographical account of each woman her life her piety her times but also offers sparkling new English translations of each writer's key hymns In the last chapter Grindal recounts her own inspiring journey as a Lutheran woman hymn writer Her Preaching from Home will open the door to a world previously unknown to most North Americans Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1950

The Christian Century, 1924 Spiritual Home Charles D. Cashdollar, 2010-11-01 A Spiritual Home explores congregational life inside British and American Reformed churches between 1830 and 1915 At a time when scholars have become interested in the day to day experience of local congregations this book reaches back into the nineteenth century a critically formative period in Anglo American religious life to examine the historical roots of congregational life Taking the perspective of the laity Cashdollar ranges widely from worship and music to fund raising and administration from pastoral care to social work from prayer meetings to strawberry festivals from the sanctuary to the kitchen Firmly rooted in broader currents of gender class notions of middle class respectability increasing expectations for personal privacy and patterns of professionalization he finds that there was a gradual shift in emphasis during these years from piety to fellowship Based on records publications and memorabilia from about 150 congregations representing eight denominations A Spiritual Home gives us a comprehensive composite portrait of religious life in Victorian Britain and America The Homiletic Review, 1898

The Publishers Weekly, 1887 More Children's Sermons Bucky Dann, 1993-01-01 Many pastors believe that children are not capable of understanding topics such as sexuality death self esteem and dealing with evil to name a few Dann offers a wide ranging resource for those who preach to children and presents a strong basis for covering a variety of topics each with a suggested theme object lesson and dialogue to help children understand and grow in faith The Giant Book of Children's Sermons Wesley T. Runk, 2003-03 Here at last is the comprehensive collection you've been searching for to minister effectively to your children during worship Drawn from every book of the New Testament The Giant Book Of Children's Sermons Matthew To Revelation contains five full years worth of material you can share with your young disciples Each of the 260 talks teach children God's Word through the use of common objects that illustrate an important concept in the scriptures The messages come from Wesley Runk a pastor and master communicator with kids who has written over 30 best selling collections of children's sermons and object lessons Runk uses a warm and often humorous approach to take on even the tough topics of the New Testament and the analogies he creates with the use of such simple objects as bananas clocks puzzles and funnels add visual focus for the kids and help them grasp the point on a level suitable for their age Now whether you are preaching from the Gospels Acts the letters of Paul the general Epistles or even Revelation you are sure to find an appropriate related talk for the children And with convenient features like scripture and object indexes for quickly locating material as well as a CD with text files that lets you easily adapt the messages to your specific circumstances The Giant Book Of Children s Sermons may be the last children s collection you ever need Cumulated Index to the Books

,1958 Preaching Through the Christian Year: Year B Fred B. Craddock,John H. Hayes,Carl R. Holladay,Gene M. Tucker,1993-10-01 This is the second volume in a comprehensive three volume set of commentaries on all of the lectionary texts for Sunday reading including the Psalms and for special days in all communions treating the readings for each year in a single volume Preaching Through the Christian Year volumes are based on the newly revised The Common Lectionary 1992 together with other readings kept in the Episcopal Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches The set will prove useful also for those who do not follow the lectionary since each volume provides commentaries on a vast number of texts and includes a complete index of those texts Simply put the best commentary series on the best lectionary An unusual blend of biblical and homiletical skills James F White This could be the Interpreter s Bible for our generation The comments are succinct and satisfying on all counts David H C Read The authors of this important series teach at Candler School of Theology at Emory University Atlanta and are renowned scholars in their particular disciplines preaching and Hebrew Bible and New Testament studies Preaching the Miracles Dallas A. Brauninger,1996 While this book offers information for the sermon writer the design of its contents provides more than the ho hum It avoids presenting a ready made cloak of words for a morning sermon Instead it invites preachers and their audiences to explore the gap between the back then and the now It not only helps answer questions it generates them a crucial element in understanding the miracles of Jesus Five sections are devoted to each of the nine miracles in Cycle B all from Mark Text For easy access the entire lectionary text is provided preventing the need to flip back and forth to the Bible What s Happening This gives a synopsis of points of action within each miracle story By reviewing the story action readers define its movement the conflict and the change or resolution Connecting Points Conversations This section offers the central material of each chapter Here Brauninger engages the preacher in an imaginary exchange before the text is given its usual preparatory attention A visit with main characters and an occasional bystander nudges readers toward stepping into their sandals This section invites the preacher and listening audience This section invites the preacher and the listening audience to ask questions relevant for them thus expanding their questioning and therefore their understanding Words Here significant words are examined While this work is not intended as a scholarly study it assists in placing things in proper context Gospel Parallels This section highlights similarities and differences among parallel stories and other gospels There is also a helpful bibliography included This new series from Brauninger promises to be a favorite among preachers Through it audiences will become aware of how God speaks to them through miracle stories and will enable them to hear their inner voice and more clearly understand it themselves Dallas A Brauninger received her

Master of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity degrees from the Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer Brauninger has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska She and her husband also an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ live in West Point Nebraska This is her seventh book Preaching Through the Christian Year: Year C Fred B.
