Tell Me Cat:

My cat told me - my dog told me Didier Hallépée, 2011-09-07 The cat and the dog have been occupying a prominent place in our homes and at our sides for many years. It is normal to come across them at any time in our literature or when visiting a website. Sometimes they occupy the central place and there are many books that have been devoted to them sometimes by writers less well known than their companions. Other times they are just making the scene more lively more truthful because without them where would be the soul of our homes. Through these quotes you will first travel in time across regions religions and cultures the Bible Einstein Mahomet Queen Elisabeth II Shakespeare Agatha Christie and many others. This little journey into the heart of wisdom or in the company of famous personalities will give you all the delights that our fourlegged friends deserve. And at the heart of all these treasures I m sure you will find valuable thoughts to illuminate your every day. His life in a family of Egyptian Maus and King Charles Spaniels made him sensitive to the deepness of the thoughts of our favorite 4 legs. Didier HALL P E shares with us the many quotations he met in the over ten thousand books he could read.

You Know Me; I'm Not One to Complain Paul Peck, Dorothy Shea Chapman, 2008-04 Dorothy Shea Chapman was the last person in the world to take herself seriously. When she first came to our Autobiography Workshop held in the Community Senior Citizen Center in Dana Point CA she entered the room with a bouncing flair and a spirited walk while folding up her red tipped white cane. One knew immediately that this woman was full of wit intelligent without the egotism that often goes with it possessing a self deprecating manner that worked as a magnet. She drew others to her without any visible effort. Dorothy s essays and poetry hit their target every time. Nothing no subject was off limits for her pen. She exhibits a sensitivity not often seen when she tackles life s most laborious challenges even grief. She tackled everything from kitchen pots to kibitzing pols from gravy to graft so to speak. This book promises you one laughing out loud page after another. Let this mother grandmother and great grandmother regale you teach you and bless you.
