Teller Of Many Tales The Lives Of Laurens Van Der Post:

Teller of Many Tales J. D. F. Jones, 2002 A revealing biography of Laurens van der Post examines his role as an charismatic advisor to Margaret Thatcher and Prince Charles his award winning books his consummate fabrications about his life and credentials and his advocacy for the cause of African peoples Future Primal Louis G. Herman, 2013 To address global political unrest and ecological collapse political science professor Herman presents ways to incorporate the wisdom of the hunter gatherer culture of the San Bushmen of southern Africa into modern Western culture Eranos Hans Thomas Hakl, 2014-09-11 Every year since 1933 many of the world's leading intellectuals have met on Lake Maggiore to discuss the latest developments in philosophy history art and science and in particular to explore the mystical and symbolic in religion The Eranos Meetings named after the Greek word for a banquet where the guests bring the food constitute one of the most important gatherings of scholars in the twentieth century The book presents a set of portraits of some of the century's most influential thinkers all participants at Eranos Carl Jung Erich Neumann Mircea Eliade Martin Buber Walter Otto Paul Tillich Gershom Scholem Herbert Read Joseph Campbell Erwin Schrodinger Karl Kereyni D T Suzuki and Adolph Portmann The volume presents a critical appraisal of the views of these men how the exchange of ideas encouraged by Eranos influenced each and examines the attraction of these esotericists towards authoritarian politics Literary Connections Between South Africa and the Lusophone World Ludmylla Lima, John T. Maddox IV, Anita De Melo, 2022-10-12 Literary Connections between South Africa and the Lusophone World connects literatures and cultures of South Africa and the Portuguese speaking nations of Africa and beyond and is set within literary and cultural studies The chapters gathered in this volume reinforce the critical and ongoing conversations in comparative and world literature from perspectives of the South It outlines some possible theoretical and methodological starting points for a comparative framework that targets transnationally literatures from the South This volume is an additional step to renew the critical potentialities of comparative literary studies Spivak 2009 as well as of humanistic criticism itself Said 2004 as South Africa and the Lusophone world except its former colonizer Portugal are outside the spatial and cultural dimension usually defined as European and or North American In this sense and due to the evident geographical and socio historical links between these regions critical scholarship on their literary connections can contribute to unprecedented perspectives of representational practices within a broader contextual dimension and in so doing provides the emergence of what Boaventura de Sousa Santos called epistemologies of the South Santos 2016 as it considers cultural exchanges in the space of so called overlapping territories and intertwined histories Said 1993 Circus of Dreams John Walsh, 2022-04-07 Something extraordinary happened to the UK literary scene in the 1980s In the space of eight years a generation of young British writers took the literary novel into new realms of setting subject matter and style challenging and almost eclipsing the Establishment writers of the 1950s It began with two names Martin Amis and Ian McEwan and became a flood Julian Barnes William Boyd Graham Swift Salman

Rushdie Jeanette Winterson and Pat Barker among them The rise of the newcomers coincided with astonishing changes in the way books were published and the ways in which readers bought them and interacted with their authors Suddenly authors of serious fiction were like rock stars fashionable sexy creatures shrewdly marketed and feted in public The yearly bunfight of the Booker Prize became a matter of keen public interest Tim Waterstone established the first of a chain of revolutionary bookshops London publishing houses became the playground of exciting visionary entrepreneurs who introduced new forms of fiction magical realist feminist post colonial gay to modern readers Independent houses began to spend ostentatious sums on author advances and glamorous book launches It was nothing short of a watershed in literary culture And its climax was the issuing of a death sentence by a fundamentalist leader whose hostility to Western ideas of free speech made him literally the world's most lethal critic Through this exciting hectic period the journalist and author John Walsh played many parts literary editor reviewer interviewer prize judge and TV pundit He met and interviewed numerous literary stars attended the best launch parties and digested all the gossip and scandal of the time In Circus of Dreams he reports on what he found first with wide eyed delight and then with a keen eye on what drove this glorious era The result is a unique hybrid of personal memoir oral history literary investigation and elegy for a golden age

The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

The King Christopher Andersen,2022-11-08 From 1 New York Times bestselling author Christopher Andersen comes a vivid and unsparing yet sympathetic portrait of one of the most complex and enigmatic figures of our time Charles who has taken his place on the throne after being the oldest and longest serving heir in British history Since the day Charles Philip Arthur George was born he has been groomed to be King After more than seventy years of waiting he finally ascends the throne The King examines the private life of this historically important and controversial figure set against the grand thousand year sweep of the British monarchy This richly detailed biography covers it all from his military training to his marriage to Lady Diana through their separation and her tragic death to his marriage to Camilla Parker Bowles In the process it provides a balanced but fully honest look into the life of the new monarch This book will tell you what the King a man who has remained something of an enigma shrouded in speculation and intrigue is really like The King is the first biography of Charles since he has become monarch and serves as an authoritative chronicle of his life

East and South Lucy Gasser,2021-07-15 What is Europe in academic discourse While Europe tends to be used as shorthand often interchangeable with the West neither the West nor Europe are homogeneous spaces Though postcolonial studies have long been debunking Eurocentrism in its multiple guises there is still work to do in fully comprehending how its imaginations and discursive legacies conceive the figure of Europe as not all who live on European soil are understood as equally European This volume explores this immediate need to rethink the axis of postcolonial cultural productions to disarticulate Eurocentrism to recognise Europe as a more diverse plural and fluid space to draw forward cultural exchanges and dialogues within the Global South Through analyses of literary texts from East Central Europe and beyond this volume sheds light on alternative literary cartographies the multiplicity of Europes and being European which exist both as they are viewed from the different geographies of the global South and within the continent itself Covering a wide spatial and temporal terrain in postcolonial and European cultural productions this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature and literary criticism cultural studies post colonial studies global South studies and European studies

Desmond Tutu John Allen, 2008 Written by a distinguished journalist and longtime associate of Desmond Tutu this definitive biography captures the flavor and details of Tutu's life while shedding light on the struggles and triumphs of modern society Drawing on personal experiences with Tutu as well as unprecedented access to his papers this account explores how Tutu transformed from a barefoot schoolboy in a deprived black township into an international symbol of the democratic spirit and religious faith During face to face confrontations with South African leaders and violent protests in the streets Tutu maintained his faith in the power of peace and when appointed to head the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Tutu seized upon it as an instrument of healing and redemption Through his moral example and his lyrical command of language he has successfully appealed to the conscience of the world and brought a whole new meaning to the phrase human rights

On Literary Attachment in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2021-09-01 This book reflects on the literary in literature Less ideologically construed more affirmative of literary attachment the study adopts a style of intimacy its tough love in a correlation between the creative work and the critical act Instead of configuring literary works to state of the nation issues the usual approach to literature from South Africa the chapters keep alive a space for conversation whether accented inwards to locality or outwards to the Anglophone world the world to which literature in South Africa continues to belong albeit as a problem child A postcolony that is not quite a postcolony South Africa is richly but frustratingly textured between Africa and the West or the South and the North Its literature hovering on the cusp of its locality and its global reach raises peculiar questions of reader reception epistemological and aesthetic frame and archival use Are the Nobel laureates Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee local writers or global writers Is the novel or the short story the more appropriate form at the edges of metropolitan cultures Given language race and culture contestation how do we recover Bushman expression for contemporary use How to consider the aesthetic appeal of two contemporaneous works one in English the other in isiXhosa the one indebted to Bloomsbury modernism the other to African custom How does Douglas Livingstone attach the Third World to the First World in both science and poetry What has a born free novelist Kopano Matlwa got to do with the Bard of Avon In a time of theorisation is it permissible for Lewis Nkosi to embody literary criticism in an autobiographical journey How to read the rupturing event the statue of Rhodes must fall through a literary sensibility Alert to the influence of critique the study is equally alert to the limits of critique Reflecting on several writers works and events that do not feature in current publications On Literary Attachment in South Africa releases literature to speak to us today within the contours of its originating energy

Rabble-Rouser for Peace John Allen, 2006-10-03 South African journalist John Allen movingly captures Desmond Tutu's life in a commanding story that sheds light on the struggles and triumphs leading up to Tutu's Nobel Prize for his leadership in the resistance against apartheid in South Africa To be a rabble rouser for peace may seem to be a contradiction in terms And yet it is the perfect description for Desmond Tutu Nobel laureate and spiritual father of a democratic South Africa Tutu understood that justice a genuine regard for human rights is the only real foundation for peace So he stirred up trouble courageously engaging in heated face to face confrontations with South Africa's leaders he stirred up trouble in the streets leading peaceful demonstrations amid the barely controlled fury of police battalions he stirred up trouble on the world stage seeking international disinvestment in the apartheid economy Tutu has led one of the great lives of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries and to read his story in full is to be reminded of the power of one inspired man to change history In this authorized biography written by John Allen a distinguished journalist and longtime associate of Tutu we are witnesses to courage stirring oratory and a demonstration of the power of faith to transform the seemingly intransigent Through the author's personal experiences total access to the Tutu family and their papers and considerable research including the use of new archival material Allen tells the story of a barefoot schoolboy from a deprived black township who became an international symbol of the democratic spirit and of religious faith

IPI Global Journalist, 2002 Storyteller J. D. F. Jones, 2001 After his death doubts soon began to spread as to whether this story presented a true picture Was his knowledge of the Kalahari Bushmen whom he prized as the last example of all that is untainted in humanity as extensive as he led us to believe and did the Bushman stories he so loved to tell come mainly from books His standing as some kind of secular saint certainly suffered with the emergence of an illegitimate daughter whose mother he had seduced when she was 14 And his claim to have effectively brokered the Lancaster House agreement on Zimbabwean independence was deflated by those who had actually been there His intimacy with C. G. Jung has also to be qualified
