Social Welfare Development in East Asia K. Tang, 2000-10-03 Comparative social policy has long neglected welfare development in Asia Not much is known about social welfare in the economically successful East Asian tigers Hong Kong Korea Singapore and Taiwan They are late starters in social welfare but each has its own trajectory of welfare development Despite the presence of extensive social welfare they have shied away from western style welfare states The presence of strong developmental states and their development ethos explain in large part the underdevelopment of state welfare

Gender, Planning and Human Rights Tovi Fenster, 2002-09-11 Challenging the traditional treatment of human rights cast in purely legal frameworks the authors argue that in order to promote the notion of human rights its geographies and spatialities must be investigated and be made explicit A wealth of case studies examine the significance of these components in various countries with multi cultured societies and identify ways to integrate human rights issues in planning development and policy making The book uses case studies from UK Israel Canada Singapore USA Peru European Union Australia and the Czech Republic

Ageing Matters John Doling, 2018-01-18 The implications of population ageing have long concerned politicians policy makers and governmental and non governmental organizations in the welfare states of Europe However an ageing workforce is increasingly a matter of concern for the developed and fast developing countries of Asia Japan leads the field in this respect on account of the speed of its postwar economic development But the little tigers of Hong Kong Singapore South Korea and Taiwan are poised to catch up and Malaysia though in the second tier of developing Asian economics faces the prospect of population ageing sufficient to daunt an as yet under prepared infrastructure for old age support This book is the first to examine in detail the experiences and prospects of population ageing in those Asian countries with the highest GDP per capita The authors pose the question to what extent Asia and old Europe can learn from each other in terms of policy planning The first section of the book sets out the field in terms of the demographic characteristics and policy predicaments of European and Asian countries The second section presents case studies of six countries Japan Hong Kong Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Malaysia
