Social Life In Medieval Karnataka:

Social Life in Medieval Karnāṭaka Jyotsna K. Kamat,1980 Women and Society in Early Medieval India Anjali Verma,2018-07-16 This book examines women and society in India during 600 1200 CE through epigraphs It offers an analysis of inscriptional data at the pan India level to explore key themes including early marriage deprivation of girls from education property rights widowhood and sat as well as women in administration and positions of power The volume also traces gender roles and agency across religions such as Hinduism and Jainism the major religions of the times and sheds light on a range of political social economic and religious dimensions A panoramic critique of contradictions and conformity between inscriptional and literary sources including pieces of archaeological evidence against traditional views on patriarchal stereotypes as also regional parities and disparities the book presents an original understanding of women s status in early medieval South Asian society Rich in archival material this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of ancient and medieval Indian history social history archaeology epigraphy sociology cultural studies gender studies and South Asian studies Blood In The Sea: The Dark History of Hindu Oppression In Goa Dr Vinay Nalwa,2023-12-12 Blood In The Sea The Dark History Of Hindu Oppression In Goa by Dr Vinay Nalwa delves into the untold and often overlooked history of Goa revealing a dark past marred by brutality and suppression Dr Vinay Nalwa uncovers the systematic persecution faced by the Hindu community throughout centuries of invasions and colonial rule This powerful book challenges readers to confront the uncomfortable truths behind Goa s picturesque fa ade presenting a compelling narrative rooted in scholarly research and historical accuracy An extraordinary and much needed exploration of Goa s forgotten past Dr Vinay Nalwa s meticulous research and passionate writing shed light on the painful and often ignored history of Hindu oppression An absolute must read for those who seek the truth beyond popular narratives A powerful and eye opening book that challenges conventional history The depth of research is commendable and the writing is impactful At times the narrative can be dense with information but it s undoubtedly an essential read for those who want to know the real story of Goa An engaging and well researched work that brings to light a dark chapter often overlooked Dr Nalwa s commitment to revealing historical truths is admirable While some parts felt slightly repetitive the overall impact of the book is profound and enlightening A thought provoking book that addresses an important topic but the writing style can be a bit heavy at times Some sections felt overly detailed which made it a slow read for me Still it s a valuable addition to historical literature on Goa Absolutely brilliant Dr Nalwa s dedication to uncovering the suppressed history of Goa is truly admirable This book is not just informative but also deeply moving It challenges readers to reflect on the hidden stories of the past and their relevance today Highly recommended Social and Economic History of Early Deccan Aloka Parasher-Sen,1993 Interpretation of the Deccan civilization to 1200 A D contributed articles Emissaries in Early Modern Literature and Culture Gitanjali Shahani,2016-04-29 With its emphasis on early modern emissaries and their role in England s expansionary ventures and cross cultural encounters across the globe this collection of essays takes the messenger figure as a focal point for the discussion of transnational exchange and intercourse in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It sees the emissary as embodying the processes of representation and communication within the world of the text itself an emissary that strives to communicate and re present certain perceptions of the real Drawing attention to the limits and licenses of communication the emissary is a reminder of the alien quality of foreign language and the symbolic power of performative gestures and rituals Contributions to this collection examine different kinds of cross cultural activities e g diplomacy trade translation espionage missionary endeavors in different world areas e g Asia the Mediterranean the Levant the New World via different critical methods and approaches They take up the literary and cultural productions and representations of ambassadors factors traders translators spies middlemen merchants missionaries and other agents who served as complex conduits for the global transport of goods religious ideologies and socio cultural practices throughout the early modern period Authors in the collection investigate the multiple ways in which the emissary became enmeshed in emerging discourses of racial religious gender and class differences They consider how the emissary s role might have contributed to an idealized progressive vision of a borderless world or conversely permeated and dissolved borders and boundaries between peoples only to further specific group interests

Revolution of the Mystics Jan Peter Schouten,1995 One of the most fascinating episode in the religious history of Southern India is the rise of the Virasaiva movement These heroic followers of Siva also called Lingayatas are characterized by a unique combination of intense devotion and social reformation The movement arose in the twelfth century under the charismatic leadership of Basava Men and women from every backgroud highcaste as well as untouchable joined the experimental community of the Virasaivas They has their own sacred literature in the form of short poems in the vernacular language of the region Kannada

Poetics of Conduct Leela Prasad,2007 Leela Prasad's riveting book presents everyday stories on subjects such as deities ascetics cats and cooking along with stylized publicly delivered ethical discourse and shows that the study of oral narrative and performance is essential to ethical inquiry Prasad builds on more than a decade of her ethnographic research in the famous Hindu pilgrimage town of Sringeri Karnataka in southwestern India where for centuries a vibrant local culture has flourished alongside a tradition of monastic authority Oral narratives and the seeing and doing orientations that are part of everyday life compel the question How do individuals imagine the normative and negotiate and express it when normative sources are many and diverging Moral persuasiveness Prasad suggests is intimately tied to the aesthetics of narration and imagination plays a vital role in shaping how people create refute or relate to text moral authority and community Lived understandings of ethics keep notions of text and practice in flux and raise questions about the constitution of theory itself Prasad's innovative use of ethnography poetics philosophy of language and narrative and performance studies demonstrates how the moral self with a capacity for artistic expression is dynamic and gendered with a historical presence and a political agency

Women Empowerment Shakila Hegde,Nagappa Gowda K,2021-11-09 There are some wonderful monographs which deal with the issues of women at the national and global level but no work of their equivalent has been produced so far with the exclusive purpose of analyzing and reviewing the position and predicaments of women limited to the district of Dakshina Kannada In this book Dr Hegde and Dr Gowda make attempts to describe the subject of women empowerment in the district the hurdles in the way of materializing it and to suggest the general lines on which the various problems that confront women should be tackled in order to get a fairly satisfactory solution Based on the detailed analysis of the working of women organizations towards realizing the goal of empowerment the book draws on the districts literary sources to explain it in a distinctive way The work will enable the reader to understand the subject in true perspective as it is based on impartial survey of all the available data Carefully researched and analyzed this book will form an essential reading for all those interested on the issues of women empowerment and the contributions of the women organisations towards it in general and the DK district of Karnataka in particular Traditional approaches to the empowerment of women particularly in developing countries tend to stress the primacy of poverty alleviation this book attempts to explain along with poverty issue how other factors such as illiteracy poor health lack of opportunity to participate politically etc fail the goal of women empowerment set in various programmes of the governmental and non governmental agencies
