Social Welfare Programs Narratives From Hard Times:

Social Welfare Programs Raymond Albert, Louise Skolnik, 2006 This text aims to help readers understand the social programs affecting professional practice with those who have been economically dislocated the near poor and poor situated on the fringe of the economy that find themselves dependent upon governmental programs to meet their basic needs for food clothing shelter and medical care

Contemporary Field Social Work Mark Doel, Steven M Shardlow, Steven Shardlow, Paul G. Johnson, 2010-06-29 This text bridges the gap by offering learning activities that can be worked in both settings The book is divided into four main parts that accounts for the major areas of social work practice Part I covers the foundations of practice including self awareness and knowing and learning about the community within one will practice The second part deals with direct practice and covers individual assessment and group work The third part focuses on agency practice and finally the last part covers special issues for consideration including multicultural practice law informed practice ethics specialist and comparative practice

Narratives of Difference in an Age of Austerity Irene Gedalof, 2017-10-19 This book traces the narrative strategies framing austerity policies through an illuminating analysis of policy documents and political discourses exposing the political consequences for women racialized minorities and disabled people While many have critiqued the ways in which austerity has captured the contemporary political narrative this is the first book to systematically examine how these narratives work to shift the terms within which policy debates about inequality and difference play out Gedalof s exceptional readings of these texts pay close attention to the formal qualities of these narratives the chronologies they impose their articulation of crisis and resolution the points of view they construct and the affective registers they deploy In this manner she argues persuasively that the differences of gender race ethnicity and disability have been stitched into the fabric of austerity as excesses that must be disavowed as reproductive burdens that are too great for the austere state to bear This innovative intersectional analysis will appeal to students and scholars of social policy gender studies politics and public policy

Social policy in challenging times Farnsworth, Kevin, Irving, Zoë, 2011-09-21 There is no precedent to the current economic crisis which looks set to redefine social policy debate throughout the globe But its effects are not uniform across nations Bringing together a range of expert contributions the key lesson to emerge from this book is that the crisis is better understood as a variety of crises each mediated by national context Consequently there is an array of potential trajectories for welfare systems from those where social policy is regarded as incompatible with the post crisis economy to those where it is considered essential to future economic growth and security

Workers in Hard Times Leon Fink, Joseph A. McCartin, Joan Sangster, 2014-02-15 Seeking to historicize the 2007 2009 Great Recession this volume of essays situates the current economic crisis and its impact on workers in the context of previous abrupt shifts in the modern day capitalist marketplace Contributors use examples from industrialized North America South America Europe Asia and Australia to demonstrate how workers and states have responded to those shifts and to their disempowering effects on labor

Since the Industrial Revolution contributors argue factors such as race sex and state intervention have mediated both the effect of economic depressions on workers lives and workers responses to those depressions Contributors also posit a varying dynamic between political upheaval and economic crises and between workers and the welfare state The volume ends with an examination of today s Great Recession its historical distinctiveness its connection to neoliberalism and its attendant expressions of worker status and agency around the world A sobering conclusion lays out a likely future for workers one not far removed from the instability and privation of the nineteenth century The essays in this volume offer up no easy solutions to the challenges facing today s workers Nevertheless they make clear that cogent historical thinking is crucial to understanding those challenges and they push us toward a rethinking of the relationship between capital and labor the waged and unwaged and the employed and jobless Contributors are Sven Beckert Sean Cadigan Leon Fink Alvin Finkel Wendy Goldman Gaetan Heroux Joseph A McCartin David Montgomery Edward Montgomery Scott Reynolds Nelson Melanie Nolan Bryan D Palmer Joan Sangster Judith Stein Hilary Wainright and Lu Zhang

Narrative as Topic and Method in Social Research Donileen R. Loseke, 2021-10-06 Narrative research is an increasingly popular qualitative method across the social sciences This book has two purposes firstly to show students and researchers how to do research on narrative topics particularly on questions about narrative productions of meaning and secondly to explain some fundamentals of research methods suitable for exploring these topics A final part of the book provides empirical examples of how such research is done These chapters use small amounts of data to examine the analytic tasks of designing research questions finding appropriate data sampling decisions contextualization data categorization and communicating study findings

Families and Food in Hard Times Rebecca O'Connell ,Julia Brannen,2021-05-24 Food is fundamental to health and social participation yet food poverty has increased in the global North Adopting a realist ontology and taking a comparative case approach Families and Food in Hard Times addresses the global problem of economic retrenchment and how those most affected are those with the least resources Based on research carried out with low income families with children aged 11 15 this timely book examines food poverty in the UK Portugal and Norway in the decade following the 2008 financial crisis It examines the resources to which families have access in relation to public policies local institutions and kinship and friendship networks and how they intersect Through thick description of families everyday lives it explores the ways in which low income impacts upon practices of household food provisioning the types of formal and informal support on which families draw to get by the provision and role of school meals in children s lives and the constraints upon families social participation involving food Providing extensive and intensive knowledge concerning the conditions and experiences of low income parents as they endeavour to feed their families as well as children s perspectives of food and eating in the context of low income the book also draws on the European social science literature on food and families to shed light on the causes and consequences of food poverty in austerity Europe

After '08 Stephen McBride,Rianne Mahon,Gerard W. Boychuk,2016-08-04 The 2007 08 financial crisis marked a turning point for social policy World leaders were forced to take a position Should they entrench neo liberal policies in response to the crisis Or should they implement alternative measures to challenge economics as usual After 08 examines how global institutions such as the World Bank International Monetary Fund and International Labour Organization as well as nation states around the world responded to the crisis Comparing the experience of Europe Asia Africa Latin America and North America contributors gauge the extent to which the neo liberal landscape has shifted since the onset of the financial crisis and explore the directions social policy has taken Did the response to the crisis follow a similar trajectory across countries and regions Or did the diversity in national experiences produce a diversity of policy responses And if so where did alternatives to neo liberalism emerge

yourself without a face the task seems impossible The face is a core feature of our physical identity Our face is how others identify us and how we think of our self Yet human faces are also functionally essential as mechanisms for communication and as a means of eating breathing and seeing For these reasons facial disfigurement can endanger our fundamental notions of self and identity or even be life threatening at worse Precisely because it is so difficult to conceal our faces the disfigured face compromises appearance status and perhaps our very way of being in the world In Saving Face sociologist Heather Laine Talley examines the cultural meaning and social significance of interventions aimed at repairing faces defined as disfigured Using ethnography participant observation content analysis interviews and autoethnography Talley explores four sites in which a range of faces are repaired face transplantation facial feminization surgery the reality show Extreme Makeover and the international charitable organization Operation Smile Throughout she considers how efforts focused on repair sometimes intensify the stigma associated with disfigurement Drawing upon experiences volunteering at a camp for children with severe burns Talley also considers alternative interventions and everyday practices that both challenge stigma and help those seen as disfigured negotiate outsider status Talley delves into the promise and limits of facial surgery continually examining how we might understand appearance as a facet of privilege and a dimension of inequality Ultimately she argues that facial work is not simply a conglomeration of reconstructive techniques aimed at the human face but rather that appearance interventions are increasingly treated as lifesaving work Especially at a time when aesthetic technologies carrying greater risk are emerging and when discrimination based on appearance is rampant this important book challenges us to think critically about how we see the human face

Regulating the Lives of Women Mimi Abramovitz, 2025-09-23 In the fourth edition of Regulating the Lives of Women Social Welfare Policy from Colonial Times to the Present Abramovitz traces how the welfare state regulated the lives of women from colonial times to the present Drawing on important feminist concepts social reproduction the gender division of labor and patriarchy Abramovitz successfully exposes the gendered and racialized myths and stereotypes built into welfare state programs The book carefully explains the contextual conditions that contributed to the precursors of the modern welfare state its rise and expansion after World War II and the recent neoliberal effort to dismantle the cash assistance programs most likely to lift women out of poverty This edition marks the most extensive overhaul to date It revises the conceptual and background chapters discusses cash assistance programs and considers emerging ideas such as the role of economic crises in the development of the US welfare state It also considers the future of the welfare state under the second Trump Presidency Regulating the Lives of Women is an essential resource for all students of social work sociology history political science public policy and gender studies
