International Socialist Review Algie Martin Simons,Charles H. Kerr,1903 The Truth about Socialism Allan Louis Benson,1913 Socialist India ,1971 Knights Down Under Robert E. Weir,2009-01-14 In the United States the Knights of Labour KOL is part of the wreckage of labor history a nineteenth century organization of great promise that flamed out quickly and completely Many scholars wrongly see it as little more than a failed experiment that stumbled due to misplaced idealism and antiquated notions of fraternalism In New Zealand the KOL s story was strikingly different achieving tremendous success in a remarkably short time Knights Down Under takes an in depth look at the organization in New Zealand and is the first thorough comparative study of the KOL in global context It calls into question assumptions about the newness of globalism national exceptionalism the uniqueness of socialist movements how social movements develop the nature of leadership and the possibilities and challenges of transnational organizing The KOL was the first labour federation to envision itself as an international body that could and should expand beyond its North American birthplace Knights Down Under sheds light on how the KOL evolved from the remnant of a failed Philadelphia tailors union to an international force that helped rewrite the social agenda in far off New Zealand Knights immersed themselves in workplace issues but also delved into politics got elected to Parliament and promoted a comprehensive program of social and labour reform They were the envy of workers in Western industrial societies most of which would not enact similarly sweeping changes for another four decades Among the reforms the KOL helped enact were women s suffrage mandatory arbitration of labour disputes old age pensions early closing hours for retail shops land redistribution an equitable tax code and the creation of a department of labour By aiding in the development of New Zealand s first political system the KOL also laid the groundwork for the future birth of an independent labour party
