La sociedad sitiada Bauman, Zygmunt, 2023-10-21 El Estado nació y la sociedad actual enfrentan un doble problema el de la globalización y el de la biodiversidad ambas minan las fronteras que la modernidad ha considerado s lidas e infranqueables Las instituciones políticas confinadas territorialmente son incapaces de hacer frente a la extraterritorialidad y al libre flujo de las finanzas el capital y el comercio Frente a esto la sociología debe modificar los marcos conceptuales que dieron cuenta de la modernidad para elaborar modelos que expliquen las nuevas experiencias humanas

The feeling of insecurity is a little known phenomenon that has been only partially explored by social sciences However it has a deep social cultural and economic impact and may even contribute to define the very structures of the state In Latin America fear of crime has become an important stumbling block in the region's process of democratization After long spells of dictatorships and civil wars violence in the region was supposed to be under control yet crime rates have continued to skyrocket and citizens remain fearful This analytical puzzle has troubled researchers and to date there is no publication which explores this problem Based on a wealth of cutting edge qualitative and quantitative research Lucía Dammert proposes a unique theoretical perspective which includes a sociological criminological and political analysis to understand fear of crime She describes its linkages to issues such as urban segregation social attitudes institutional trust public policies and authoritarian discourses in Chile's recent past Looking beyond Chile Dammert also includes a regional comparative perspective allowing readers to understand the complex elements underpinning this situation Fear and Crime in Latin America challenges many assumptions and opens an opportunity to discuss an issue that affects everyone with key societal and personal costs As crime rates increase and states become even more fragile fear of crime as a social problem will continue to have an important impact in Latin America
