You Never Step into the Same Pulpit Twice Ronald J. Allen, 2022-06-23 This volume develops an approach to preaching that brings together two important forces One is process theology and the other is a homiletic of conversation based on mutual critical correlation In this approach the preacher does not unilaterally announce the Word of God but is the leader of an exciting conversation involving the biblical text process theology the congregation and voices from the larger world The preacher seeks to help the congregation identify God's invitations towards inclusive well being and to imagine how to respond in ways that are consistent with those invitations that promote inclusive well being The book begins with a crisp and clear summary of the worldview of process theology highlighting its distinctive views on how God operates in the world through invitation and on the interrelationship of all things The work then outlines an approach to biblical exegesis informed by process perspectives and sketches a method for bringing the biblical voice into dialogue with voices from tradition contemporary theology and the congregation and preacher The volume suggests shaping the sermon to honor process theology and conversation The volume concludes by noticing how perspectives from process and conversation help the preacher embody the sermon in engaging ways

Primal Religion and the Bible Gillian M. Bediako, 1997-08-01 This important study of the published and unpublished writings of Scotland's most brilliant and controversial nineteenth century theologian focuses on his concern to situate biblical religion within the context of the primal religions of Israel's neighbours The book explores the implications of the relationship between the Christian faith and primal religion Robertson Smith has still a contribution to make to contemporary discussion of the phenomenology of the Christian faith and Christian responses to religious pluralism

Light on the Four Gospels from the Sinai Palimpsest Agnes Smith Lewis, 1913 The New Testament Today Mark Allan Powell, 1999-01-01 This volume offers the collective insight of eleven scholars who represent the spectrum of New Testament studies Their expert commentaries make this book an invaluable resource for both the seasoned researcher and the beginning student

The Spirit and the Salvation of the Urban Poor Brandon Kertson, 2019-11-15 Poverty What is it good for Absolutely nothing Still poverty is an ever present reality even in so called first world nations like the United States If the Holy Spirit is the member of the Trinity that is ever present in our world perhaps the Spirit can be a resource to address poverty In this pneumatological theology of poverty Brandon Kertson explores the current state of poverty in the United States arguing its complexities also require complex answers demanding a pneumatological approach that has yet to be offered Using Renewal theology and pneumatology Kertson develops a pneumatological four fold gospel based on Jesus pneumatic declaration of Luke 4 He explores how the Spirit addresses poverty through Jesus and the historic and global church and how we can begin to address poverty through the Spirit today The Spirit as savior baptizer healer and entelechy of the kingdom lays the foundation for a holistic response to the complex problem of poverty in our country Love, Loss, and Abjection Melanie Baffes,2016-06-03 This study explores the premise that the experience of being born from above in John s Gospel can be seen as mirroring the development of human subjectivity particularly as understood through the psychoanalytic work of Julia Kristeva It draws specifically on Kristeva s theory of how the human self subject takes shape in infancy her contention that subjectivity is a work in progress and her insistence on abjection as a catalyst for developing selfhood Examining the story of Mary of Bethany as narrated in John 11 12 through this lens this analysis seeks to better understand the concept of new birth and how it relates to being fully human The Theological Role of Paradox in the Gospel of Mark Laura C. Sweat,2013-10-10 Scholarship on the Gospel of Mark has long been convinced of the paradoxical description of two of its primary themes christology and discipleship This book argues that paradoxical language pervades the entire narrative and that it serves a theological purpose in describing God s activity Part One focuses on divine action present in Mark 4 10 12 In the first paradox Mark portrays God s revelatory acts as consistently accompanied by concealment The second paradox is shown in the various ways in which divine action confirms yet counters scripture Finally Mark describes God s actions in ways that indicate both wastefulness and goodness deeds that are further illuminated by the ongoing yet defeated presence of evil Part Two demonstrates that this paradoxical language is widely attested across Mark s passion narrative as he continues to depict God s activity with the use of the three paradoxes observed in Mark 4 Through paradoxical narrative Mark emphasizes God s transcendence and presence showing that even though Jesus has brought revelation a complete understanding of God remains tantalizingly out of their grasp until the eschaton 4 22 Putting Jesus in His Place Halvor Moxnes,2003-01-01 This is a study of the Historical Jesus that pays close attention to the role of space and place from house to kingdom for understanding Jesus identity Halvor Moxnes employs a sociological and anthropological approach that promises to give greater depth to our perceptions of Jesus APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1958 Studies in Social Progress in the Gospel of the Kingdom ,1914 Disruptive Christian Ethics Traci C. West,2006-01-16 This book brings to the fore the difficult realities of racism and the sexual violation of women Traci West argues for a liberative method of Christian social ethics in which the discussion begins not with generic philosophical concepts but in the concrete realities of the lives of the socially and economically marginalized "The Church as the Image of the Trinity" Kevin J. Bidwell,2011-06-10 A resurgence of Trinitarian interest gained momentum in the twentieth century and it is showing little sign of abating in the twenty first century This research endeavors to critically evaluate Miroslav Volf s ecclesial model for the church as the image of the Trinity one that he presents with the English title After Our Likeness Volf proposes a social doctrine of the Trinity one that is heavily influenced by the theological writings of Jurgen Moltmann and he puts forward that this nonhierarchical Trinity should be reflected in the structures and theology of the church If Volf is correct then a radical reshaping is needed for the church to conform to an egalitarian pattern one that is after the likeness Gen 1 26 of an egalitarian God In this critical examination Kevin J Bidwell begins by stating the theological influences that are pertinent to Volf s thesis in After Our Likeness and the assumptions that undergird and inform his whole theological paradigm An important theological excursus is offered to assess the theology of John Smyth the first English Baptist who is Volf s representative figure for the location of his own ecclesiology the Free Church A critical analysis follows of Volf s engagement with his two chosen dialogue partners who represent both Western and Eastern theological traditions Joseph Ratzinger and John D Zizioulas Volf presents five theses for the church as the image of the Trinity which could be labeled as Volf s Free Church in the image of Volf s revised doctrine of the Trinity This monograph offers extensive insight into the contemporary debate on the doctrine of the Trinity but it also assesses many aspects of ecclesiology from both Eastern and Western perspectives
