with a single focused message that it is the values held by a people and not its politics that determine its fate Further Judges contends that there is a direct connection between the kind of values people internalize and the level of violence that racks their society both inflicted from without and generated from within And not least that the presence of violence is a symptom that a society has abandoned the moral values of monotheism for the Machiavellian politics of a pagan worldview that worships power as the ultimate reality The larger than life heroes and heroines Ehud and Jael Deborah and Gideon Jephthah and Samson who people the pages of Judges serve by their example to illustrate the way this thesis works out in the world
