Marshall,1974 Herman Melville's Foreign Reputation Leland R. Phelps,Kathleen McCullough,1983 Dead Letters to the New World Michael McLoughlin,2003-10-16 This book contextualises and details Herman Melville s artistic career and outlines the relationship between Melville and Ralph Waldo Emerson Michael McLoughlin divides Melville s professional career as a novelist into two major phases corresponding to the growth and shift in his art In the developmental phase from 1845 to 1850 Melville wrote his five Transcendental novels of the sea in which he defended self reliance attacked conformity and learned to employ Transcendental symbols of increasing complexity This phase culminates in Moby Dick with its remarkable matching of Transcendental idealism with tragic drama influenced by Hawthorne After 1851 Melville endeavoured to find new ways to express himself and to re envision human experience philosophically In this period of transition Melville wrote anti Transcendental fiction attacking self reliance as well as conformity and substituting fatalism for Emersonian optimism According to McLoughlin Moby Dick represents an important transitional moment in Herman Melville s art dramatically altering tendencies inherent in the novels from Typee onward in contrast to Melville s blithely exciting and largely optimistic first six novels of the sea Melville s later works beginning with his pivotal epic Moby Dick assume a much darker and increasingly anti Transcendental philosophical position

Ralph Waldo Emerson Manfred Pütz,J. K. Adams,J. Boeck,1986 Emerson scholarship has been particularly productive in the last couple of decades At the same time however bibliographies have been slow in catching up with this development Only few selective checklists cover modern criticism on Emerson none of them going beyond the seventies It is the object of the present bibliography to document all Emerson criticism of the twentieth century up to the mid eighties The Research Bulletin ,1968 The Research Bulletin of the University of Panjab ,1962 Panjab University Research Bulletin ,1970 Directory of American Scholars Jaques Cattell Press,1974
