Farbridge, 1970 The Power of Pictures in Christian Thought Anthony C. Thiselton, 2018-11-15 A biblical historical and theological investigation into the tendency of literary images to either enlighten or mislead and how we can learn to distinguish between the two Part One considers key philosophical and aesthetic evaluations of literary images and symbols The power of pictures is widely appreciated as in the adage a picture is worth a thousand words Sometimes Christian discourse can be smothered by endless prose which demands much inferential reasoning There is however a contrary argument An isolated visual representation can be misleading if it is improperly interpreted For example some mystical visions are interpreted as direct instructions from the Holy Spirit as happened with the Radical Reformers who advocated the Peasants Revolt Hence theories of symbol metaphor and visual representation must be examined Part Two discusses visual representation in the Old Testament the teaching of Jesus pictures and analogies in Paul and the Book of Revelation This shows the range of authentic visual representations In contrast to biblical material we find throughout Christian history abundant examples of misleading imagery which is often passed off as Christian A notorious example is found in the visual representation and metaphors used by Gnostic writers Almost as bad are some visual representations used by the medieval mystics Radical Reformers and extreme charismatics all of which lack valid criteria of interpretation relying instead on subjective conviction Similarly sermons and prayers today can be enriched with pictorial images but some can be misleading and unhelpful for the life of the Church
