Studies In Late Mediaeval Italian Art:

Studies in Late Medieval Italian Art John White, 1984 In this second volume of Professor White's studies the emphasis shifts to Italian art in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries and the major figures who were responsible for the decisive changes in painting and sculpture that were to lead on to the Renaissance Here again however there is the same concern with the actual monuments The author devotes two major studies to the reconstruction of the original appearance of Duccio's Maesta and of Nicola Pisano's Perugia Fountain An important new study of the physical evidence for Cimabue's work at Assisi shows the value of an understanding of the working processes involved there This conviction that the starting point in a thorough investigation into the original appearance or development of any work of art lies in the observation of the physical evidence is central to Professor White's approach whether this may be the arrangement of panels on a polyptych or the scrutiny of giornate on a painted ceiling

Late Medieval Italian Art and Its Contexts Joanna Cannon, 2022 Joanna Cannon's scholarship and teaching have helped shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art this essay collection by her former students is a tribute to her work The essays collected here form a tribute to Joanna Cannon whose scholarship and teaching have done so much to shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art Her teaching lies at the heart of this book as its chapters are all written by those who gained their doctorates under her supervision The reach of her interests and expertise is also reflected in its range of subjects The book is unified by its concentration on Italian art history and material culture spanning the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries but within that scope the individual essays focus on an impressive variety of subjects across many media including panel painting wall painting architecture sculpture metalwork manuscripts and gilded glass Ranging across Italy from Bologna to Siena to Assisi to Florence they address key themes in the field such as artistic patronage sainthood and sanctity the visual culture of the mendicant orders devotional practice and civic religion Some essays bring fresh approaches to familiar material Ambrogio Lorenzetti's Saint Nicholas panels the frescoes in Siena's Palazzo Pubblico Simone Martini's Holy Family while others illuminate objects and images that are less well known the central panel of the Santa Chiara triptych in Trieste and the statue of Saint Francis in San Francesco in Siena As a collection they combine to make an important contribution to the study of Early Italian art seeking thereby to echo the extraordinary contribution of Joanna Cannon's own work to that field

Mary of Mercy in Medieval and Renaissance Italian Art Katherine T. Brown, 2017-07-05 Mater Misericordiae Mother of Mercy emerged as one of the most prolific subjects in central Italian art from the late thirteenth through the sixteenth centuries With iconographic origins in Marian cult relics brought from Palestine to Constantinople in the fifth century the amalgam of attributes coalesced in Armenian Cilicia then morphed as it spread to Cyprus An early concept of Mary of Mercy the Virgin standing with outstretched arms and a wide mantle under which kneel or stand devotees entered the Italian peninsula at the ports of Bari and Venice during the Crusades eventually converging in central Italy The mendicant orders adopted the image as an easily recognizable symbol for mercy and aided in its diffusion In this study the author's primary goals are to explore the iconographic origins of the Madonna della Misericordia as a devotional image by identifying and analyzing key attributes to consider circumstances for its eventual overlapping function as a secular symbol used by lay confraternities and to discuss its diaspora throughout the Italian peninsula Western Europe and eastward into Russia and Ukraine With over 100 illustrations the book presents an array of works of art as examples including altarpieces frescoes oil paintings manuscript illuminations metallurgy glazed terracotta stained glass architectural relief sculpture and processional banners

New Saints in Late-Mediaeval Venice, 1200-1500 Karen E. McCluskey, 2019-10-08 This book focuses on the comparatively unknown cults of new saints in late mediaeval Venice These new saints were near contemporary citizens who were venerated by their compatriots without official sanction from the papacy In doing so the book uncovers a sub culture of religious expression that has been overlooked in previous scholarship The study highlights a myriad of hagiographical materials both visual and textual created to honour these new saints by members of four different Venetian communities The Republican government the monastic orders mostly Benedictine the mendicant orders and local parishes By scrutinising the hagiographic portraits described in painted vita panels written vitae passiones votive images sermons and sepulchre monuments as well as archival and historical resources the book identifies a specifically Venetian typology of sanctity tied to the idiosyncrasies of the city's site and history By focusing explicitly on local typological traits the book produces an intimate and complex portrait of Venetian society and offers a framework for exploring the lived religious experience of late mediaeval societies beyond the lagoon As a result it will be of keen interest to scholars of Venice lived religion hagiography mediaeval history and visual culture

Art as Politics in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena Timothy B. Smith, 2017-07-05 In Art as Politics in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena contributors explore the evolving relationship between image and politics in Siena from the time of the city state's defeat of Florence at the Battle of Montaperti in 1260 to the end of the Sienese Republic in 1550 Engaging issues of the politicization of art in Sienese painting sculpture architecture and urban design the volume challenges the still prevalent myth of Siena's cultural and artistic conservatism after the mid fourteenth century Clearly establishing uniquely Sienese artistic agendas and vocabulary these essays broaden our understanding of the intersection of art politics and religion in Siena by revisiting its medieval origins and exploring its continuing role in the Renaissance

Vision, Devotion, and Self-Representation in Late Medieval Art Alexa Sand, 2014-03-31 This book investigates the owner portrait in the context of late medieval devotional books primarily from France and England These mirror like pictures of praying book owners respond to and help develop a growing concern with visibility and self scrutiny that characterized the religious life of the laity after the Fourth Lateran Council in 1215 The image of the praying book owner translated pre existing representational strategies concerned with the authority and spiritual efficacy of pictures and books such as the Holy Face and the donor image into a more intimate and reflexive mode of address in Psalters and Books of

Hours created for lay users Alexa Sand demonstrates how this transformation had profound implications for devotional practices and for the performance of gender and class identity in the striving aristocratic world of late medieval France and England

Painting in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena, 1260-1555 Diana Norman, 2003-01-01 The city of Siena one of Italy's major artistic centers was home to many celebrated painters among them Duccio Simone Martini Ambrogio and Pietro Lorenzetti Sassetta and Beccafumi This generously illustrated book provides a survey of Sienese painting from 1260 to 1555 an era of extraordinary artistic creativity in the Tuscan city Art historian Diana Norman addresses the style and artistic technique of Sienese painters throughout the three centuries and explores why paintings were made where they were originally seen and how they were used and enjoyed by their audiences The book focuses on works of art made for Siena itself many of which are still to be seen within the city Norman organizes the discussion around types of commissions and throughout the book situates the paintings within the context of the political social and religious circumstances of late medieval and renaissance Siena
