Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 237

John T. Scott

Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 237:

The Enterprise of Enlightenment Terry Pratt, David McCallam, 2004 Published on the occasion of his retirement in honour of his outstanding contribution to French Enlightenment studies this volume explores those areas of research in which David Williams has excelled and continues to excel literary criticism particularly Voltaire the history of ideas women and Enlightenment colonial practices and revolutionary politics It brings together a collection of essays from some of the most prestigious international names in the field and tackles subjects which expose in all their splendid diversity the enterprise both innovation and undertaking of the Si cle des Lumi res Discours Préliminaire Ann Thomson, 1981 Jean-Jacques Rousseau: Human nature and history John T. Scott, 2006 Bringing together critical assessments of the broad range of Rousseau s thought with a particular emphasis on his political theory this systematic collection is an essential resource for both student and scholar The Ravishment of Persephone Julia Knowlton De Pree, 1998 This study delineates a theory of epistolary lyric that refutes historical notions of a siecle sans poesie Julia De Pree argues that monophonic epistolary texts written during the Ancien Regime both reflect and resist the Classical legacy and at the same time anticipate the nineteenth century prose poem De Pree illustrates her theory of epistolary lyric through readings in the historical canon Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Laclos but emphasizes the contributions of the epistoliere Francoise de Graffigny Isabelle de Charriere and Marie Jeanne Riccoboni She argues that through their relatively short length their incorporation of blank space and their monophonic voice female authored letter texts articulate epistolary lyric at the intersection of narrative theatrical and poetic codes De Pree concludes that as a plural and protean form epistolary lyric anticipates the so called poetic revolution s that transformed nineteenth century French lyric The Pragmatic Enlightenment Dennis C. Rasmussen, 2014 This is a study of the political and moral thought of the Enlightenment focusing on four key eighteenth century thinkers David Hume Adam Smith Montesquieu and Voltaire Dennis C Rasmussen argues that these thinkers exemplify a particularly attractive type of liberalism one that is more realistic moderate flexible and contextually sensitive than most other branches of this tradition

Rationalism and Anti-rationalism in the Origins of Economics William Oliver Coleman, 1995 This major new study of the philosophical roots of economics examines the impact on eighteenth century economic thought of the rivalry between two opposing philosophical outlooks rationalism and anti rationalism The economic thought of this period William Coleman argues was a synthesis of these two outlooks Rationalism and Anti Rationalism in the Origins of Economics examines the history of this key intellectual debate from Locke Leibniz and Mandeville to Hume Condillac Turgot and Smith This authoritative study offers new insights on the work of the eighteenth century rationalists and anti rationalists and the impact they had on the development of economic thought and analysis Dr Coleman s book addresses an intellectual conflict which remains relevant today Neoclassical economics is frequently criticized because some of its assumptions such as those concerning optimization rationality and equilibrium are rationalist in character This important book explores the intellectual archaeology of this continuing controversy over neoclassical economics and offers new perspectives drawn from the lessons of the past The Sceptical Mode in Modern Philosophy R. A. Watson, J.E. Force, 2012-12-06 Studies in French

Language Literature and History Fraser Mackenzie, Roy Clement Knight, Jack Morgan Milner, 2015-10 Originally published in 1949 this volume contains 23 essays in the field of French studies by colleagues of Professor R L Greene Health Care and Poor Relief in 18th and 19th Century Southern Europe Ole Peter Grell, 2017-07-05 The poor and the sick poor have always presented a problem to the governments and churches of Europe Whose responsibility are they Are they a wilful burden on the honest working population or are they a necessary presence for the true Christian to live the true Christian life In the 18th and 19th centuries what happened to the poor and the sick poor in the north and south of Europe was different In the north there occurred first the Reformation in the 16th century which changed attitudes to the poor and then the advent of industrialisation with its far reaching effects of pauperisation of people both in town and countryside In the Catholic south where industrialisation did not appear so soon the Catholic Church introduced a programme of reform at all levels but along traditional lines This included the founding of new orders dedicated to the care of the poor and sick of new institutions within which to house and care for them At all times it was taken for granted that it was a necessary aspect of being a Christian that one should give for the care of the needy and that this was not the duty of the state or of secular institutions The secularising movement did however reach the southern countries by way both of the Enlightenment and more drastically in the form of the Napoleonic invasions But after the defeat of Napoleon the Church reasserted its right to administer and control the support of the poor and sick and this situation continued until 1900 in most areas Moreover the effects of industrialisation and the concomitant increase in population did make itself felt in the south in the course of the 19th century which put great stress on the institutions for poor relief and health care for the poor All this is still relevant today since the situations that governments and the Catholic Church found themselves confronted with and the stark choices they had to make are being replayed to some extent today Who is responsible for the poor who is to blame for their being poor How should their poverty be relieved how should the health care of the many be funded These are still live issues today While complete in itself the present volume also forms the fourth and last of a four volume survey of health care and poor relief in Europe between 1500 and 1900 edited by Ole Peter Grell and Andrew Cunningham Rousseau and Liberty Robert Wokler, 1995 Rousseau is considered to be at once the most modern political thinker of the 18th century and the most ancient in his allegiance to classical republicanism These essays address the place of liberty in his moral and political philosophy and the origins meaning strength weakness and significance of his argument
