Studies in Portuguese literature Aubrey F. G. Bell, 1975 Studies in Portuguese Literature Aubrey Fitz Gerald Bell, 1914 Studies in Portuguese Literature and History in Honour of Luís de Sousa Rebelo Luís de Sousa Rebelo, 1992 Chronology of Portuguese Literature Rogério Miguel Puga, 2020-05-15 This is the first Chronology of Portuguese Literature to be published in any language It presents a comprehensive year by year list of significant and representative works of literature published mainly in Portuguese from 1128 to the beginning of the current millennium As a reference tool it displays the continuity and variety of the literature of the oldest European country and documents the development of Portuguese letters from their origins to the year 2000 while also presenting the year of birth and death of each author This book is an ideal resource for students and academics of Portuguese literature and Lusophone cultures

Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03 Portuguese Literature and the Environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from Medieval times to the present From the centrality of nature in Medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world More recently the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social political or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non humans The book is organized into three sections The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy historiography culture and environmental issues The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the environment from the Renaissance to 1900 The final section analyzes the connection between literary movements or specific authors and environmental change from 1900 to today Scholars of literature Latin American studies literature and environmental studies will find this volume especially useful Studies in Portuguese Literature , 2002

Reading Literature in Portuguese Claudia Pazos Alonso, 2017-12-02 This collection brings together textual commentaries on thirty representative works of literature in Portuguese either complete poems or extracts from longer works ranging from the medieval lyric of the 13th century through the poetry and drama of the Portuguese Renaissance the great Realist novels of the nineteenth century early twentieth century Modernism and post 1974 writings through to the present day while also including examples of 19th and 20th century Brazilian literature The authors chosen poets dramatists and novelists are generally regarded as iconic writers and the three most famous canonical Portuguese authors Luis de Camoes Fernando Pessoa Jose Saramago are featured but the texts selected for commentary strike a balance between a focus on well known and lesser studied works All the primary texts are reproduced in Portuguese sometimes in original editions with English translations added for the majority The contributors variously explicate and contextualise the works they present some focusing on hidden meaning others on philological aspects of editing others on their historical intellectual and philosophical context and others still on the process of translation itself All however aim to develop the art of reading for the benefit of scholars and students alike Stephen Parkinson and Claudia Pazos Alonso are members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at Oxford University and editors of the Companion to Portuguese Literature Tamesis 2009

A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment

STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford
