Christopher Nadon

Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 268:

Commerce and Its Discontents in Eighteenth-Century French Political Thought Anoush Fraser Terjanian, 2013 This book uncovers the ambivalence towards commerce in eighteenth century France questioning the assumption that commerce was widely celebrated in the era of Adam Smith

Rousseau's Economic Philosophy Bertil Fridén, 2012-12-06 An increasing body of literature concerns the economics of those highly appreciated qualities of life that are not easily provided by market exchange Today these problems are visible as never before for example environmental problems But already at the dawn of industrial society the problem had been observed by Rousseau His statements on the economy claim to take these problems into account with due importance In this way his economic philosophy concerns a different domain of the economy from for example Adam Smith's work Rousseau's philosophy attempts to consider phenomena later labeled information asymmetries and information costs bargaining collective good problems Some of Rousseau's most puzzling social proposals on theater women music etc can be explained by his well argued conviction that an optimal economy demands a high social morale a communicative morale He proposes an economic philosophy for the most important properties of richness such as experiencing the unique and being free although dependent on others empowerment It is for the adult capable of true deliberation not for the trifle of the innocent child He develops a concept of richness that is close to the Aristotelian capability concept later explored by Amartya Sen Rousseau's economic philosophy has not been treated in a monograph before The book should be rewarding to those interested in social theory the history of social and economic thought problems at the margins of market exchange e g cultural economics environmental economics students of Rousseau and the thought of the 18th century welfare economic theory in the direction of Arrow or Sen and Pany and others theses about the transition from self-sufficiency to market

Selling Textiles in the Long Eighteenth Century J. Stobart, B. Blonde, 2014-09-16 Textiles are a key component of the industrial and consumer revolutions yet we lack a coherent picture of how the marketing of textiles varied across the long 18th century and between different regions This book provides important new insights into the ways in which changes in the supply of textiles related to shifting patterns of demand

From Savage to Citizen Amy S. Wyngaard, 2004 Using methodologies derived from cultural studies new historicism and the history of ideas Amy S. Wyngaard argues that changing ideas of individual class and national identity in the eighteenth century were elaborated around portrayals of the peasant

BOOK JACKET

David Hume's Political Economy Margaret Schabas, Carl Wennerlind, 2008 This collection of twelve new essays by distinguished scholars in the fields of history and the philosophy of economics is one of the first book length studies of Hume's political economy

Classical Learning in Britain, France, and the Dutch Republic, 1690-1750 Floris Verhaart, 2020-06-10 For much of western history the achievements of classical antiquity were seen as unsurpassable and works by Latin and Greek authors were viewed as treasure troves of information still useful for contemporary society By the late seventeenth century however the progress of scientific discoveries and the new paradigms of rationalism and empiricism meant the authority of the ancients was called into question Those working on the classical past and its literature debated new ways of defending their relevance for society The different approaches to classical literature defended in these debates explain how the writings of ancient Greece and Rome could become a vital part of eighteenth century culture and political thinking Floris Verhaart analyses these eighteenth century debates about the value of classics arguing that the Enlightenment though often seen as an age of reason and modernity in fact continuously sought inspiration from preceding traditions and ages such as Renaissance humanism and classical antiquity The volume offers an interesting parallel with the modern day in which the relationship between experts and the general public has become the topic of debate and many academics especially in the humanities face pressure to explain how their work benefits society at large

Enlightenment and Secularism Christopher Nadon, 2013-04-18 Enlightenment and Secularism is a collection of twenty eight essays that seek to understand the connection between the European Enlightenment and the emergence of secular societies as well as the character or nature of those societies The contributors are drawn from a variety of disciplines including History Sociology Political Science and Literature Most of the essays focus on a single text from the Enlightenment borrowing or secularizing the format of a sermon on a text and are designed to be of particular use to those teaching and studying the history of the Enlightenment within a liberal arts curriculum

Comparative Criticism:

Volume 4, The Language of the Arts E. S. Shaffer, 1982-11-11 Addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives

Maledicta 3 (1979) Reinhold Aman, 1987

The Enterprise of Enlightenment Terry Pratt, David McCallam, 2004 Published on the occasion of his retirement in honour of his outstanding contribution to French Enlightenment studies this volume explores those areas of research in which David Williams has excelled and continues to excel literary criticism particularly Voltaire the history of ideas women and Enlightenment colonial practices and revolutionary politics It brings together a collection of essays from some of the most prestigious international names in the field and tackles subjects which expose in all their splendid diversity the enterprise both innovation and undertaking of the Si cle des Lumi res
