Campbell, 2015 An uplifting and interesting book You can really feel that it has been important for Tina to write it though at first it was not meant for publication There is no doubt that the book will be an inspiration to many different readers to people who have experienced difficulties in their past to others who have one or more disabilities to caregivers and to professionals As a professional it is certainly very motivating to read how with all the experiences she has had and the adversity she has ever met with Tina has still managed to get to the point where she is today It is good to be reminded that everyone regardless of his or her background has hidden strengths some more than others and that these should not be ignored in one's work as a professional Weaknesses and problems are often easier to spot but they can also create a negative attitude towards people who in one way or another come in contact with the health system It is uplifting to read Tina's own ways of compensating for the lack of help that she and her family were given Cases like Tina's unfortunately often tend to be ignored I hope that others in similar situations will be able to use

Tina's experiences to spot solutions or opportunities they might not even know existed I would definitely recommend the book to other professionals to dandelion children and to their families Emma Ehlers Nielsen Psychologist Dandelion Centre Nuuk Greenland

The Best of TMWG Rob Alexander, 2013-02-28 I've got Peter Gabriel's 'I Don't Remember' going thru my head this morning and most of yesterday and the day before. It seems important to some part of my soul which sits with signs and applause everytime it goes thru my head. They like the drive of the artist's expression of frustration and anxiety which comes thru in a manic craziness. The song is an example of something that flashes us spiritually. Maybe unlike a man in a trenchcoat wearing shorts with a tee shirt flashing us briefly as we walk by. The words 'believe in god' embellished on his shirt echo on the canvas of the imagination. It doesn't matter if we turn around run after him and chide him in his actions. It doesn't matter if by doing this it puts him in the same allegory as a pervert and by action god as well. Ultimately though the tired worn-out god quietly sitting in a corner desperately trying to believe in himself probably wondering how valid this whole soap opera is and whether or not spiritual flashers help or hurt his cause. Now I got one of the songs from the last temptation of Christ going thru my head. Soundtrack ala Peter Gabriel as well another spiritual flasher who Jesus or Peter Gabriel both an arrow pointing at a path to be walked or a voice to listen to or a feeling to behold. The hardest part is opening your heart up to the option the option to be open. Maybe it's god that's trying to get into a working relationship with us and it's us that flinch and put it back up on a pedestal why pursue it then the path you might accidentally get superpowers or something start levitating healing the sick curing the blind become an issue to be dealt with by turkeys that can't fly walk around wonder when thanksgiving is wonder if you look like a turkey if you are a turkey walking around with turkeys talking turkey talk about how great it is to be a turkey waiting for other turkeys to come over and watch turkey friends on turkey tv and each turkey has the same turkey right to talk turkey to any turkey it wants in a frantic pace with a frantic face then it's a good turkey day to be a turkey gobble it up the daily rut question your life avoid the knife be not a turkey entwined behind the line of commonality to turkey HQ after awhile you fall into the style you are accepted people talk to you and you find flaws in the turkey tune The Grotonian ,1917 Flowers in the Pavement Charles Montgomery Skinner,1900 a chatty discursive little book about the wildflowers that make their homes in the city Publisher's description
