Novel Open Source Python Neutrosophic Package Haitham A. El-Ghareeb, Neutrosophic sets have gained wide popularity and acceptance in both academia and industry. Different fields have successfully adopted and utilized neutrosophic sets. However, there is no open source implementation that provides the basic neutrosophic concepts. Open source is a global movement that enables developers to share their source code as researchers do share their research ideas and results. Presented Open source python neutrosophic package is the first of its kind. It utilizes object-oriented concepts.

Design, User Experience, and Usability: User Experience in Novel Technological Environments Aaron Marcus, 2013-07-01 The four-volume set LNCS 8012, 8013, 8014, and 8015 constitutes the proceedings of the Second International Conference on Design, User Experience, and Usability DUXU 2013, held as part of the 15th International Conference on Human-Computer Interaction HCII 2013, held in Las Vegas, USA, in July 2013, jointly with 12 other thematically similar conferences. The total of 1666 papers and 303 posters presented at the HCII 2013 conferences was carefully reviewed and selected from 5210 submissions. These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems. The papers accepted for presentation thoroughly cover the entire field of Human-Computer Interaction, addressing major advances in knowledge and effective use of computers in a variety of application areas. The total of 282 contributions included in the DUXU proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in this four-volume set. The 65 papers included in this volume are organized in the following topical sections: designing for safe and secure environments; designing for smart and ambient devices; designing for virtual and augmented environments; and emotional and persuasion design.
