Taking Back Control African Canadian Wom:

Taking Back Control Annette Henry,1998-09-03 An alternative pedagogical perspective toward the education of Black children is explored through the narratives of five African Canadian women teachers

Taking Back Control Annette Henry,1998-09-03 Taking Back Control is a ground breaking investigation of the world and consciousness of five African Canadian women teachers Their rich textured narratives explore the contradictions in North American and Western education and the need for alternative standpoints and transformative strategies Their engaged vision is presented as a means to discuss the limitations and possibilities of oppositional minority teacher standpoints in the mainstream as well as alternative pedagogical strategies Henry also discusses the literacy strategies employed in creating an environment in which African Canadian pupils can develop literacy skills and critically understand their identities as people of African heritage in North American society She raises important issues for thinking about teaching from critical informed anti racist perspectives

Voices of Black Girls in Toronto Donna Kakonge,2017-04-23 Voices of Black Girls in Toronto is an academic book which includes research and non fiction data collection and analysis concerning the career choices and futures of high school girls of African descent in Toronto

Reading Canadian Women's and Gender History Nancy Janovicek,Carmen Nielson,2019-05-06 Inspired by the question of what s next in the field of Canadian women s and gender history this broadly historiographical volume represents a conversation among established and emerging scholars who share a commitment to understanding the past from intersectional feminist perspectives It includes original essays on Quebecois Indigenous Black and immigrant women s histories and tackles such diverse topics as colonialism religion labour warfare sexuality and reproductive labour and justice Intended as a regenerative retrospective of a critically important field this collection both engages analytically with the current state of women s and gender historiography in Canada and draws on its rich past to generate new knowledge and areas for inquiry

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer,Bernardo P. Gallegos,Annette Henry,Mary Bushnell Greiner,Paula Groves Price,2011-07-05 Parts one and two of this volume present the theoretical lenses used to study the social contexts of education These include long established foundations disciplines such as sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as newer theoretical perspectives such as critical race theory feminist educational theory and cultural studies in education Parts three four and five demonstrate how these theoretical lenses are used to examine such phenomena as globalization media popular culture technology youth culture and schooling This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study This book is appropriate as a reference volume not only for scholars in the social foundations of education but also for scholars interested in the cultural contexts of teaching and learning formal and informal It is also appropriate as a textbook for graduate level courses in Social Foundations of Education School and Society Educational Policy Studies Cultural Studies in Education and Curriculum and Instruction Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education, 2010-01-01 Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education takes up the challenge of an anti colonial reading of Fanon to broach questions of identity difference and belonging and the implications for schooling and education The authors deliberately offer a careful and selective capturing of Fanon s works pointing to the relevance for oppressed communities as they resist re organized colonial relations in schooling and education While colonialism and neo colonialism have functioned and continue to function differently in diverse environments and social contexts contributions in the book enthuse that we must raise new questions in a bold attempt to re theorize colonial relations social difference and the representational politics of education Educators must ask new questions in order to contribute to knowledge of how to resist the entrapments of colonialism racism exploitation and alienation Frantz Fanon s oeuvre is informative to the pursuit of critical education especially when we examine the colonial encounter and the colonized experience The book offers concrete lessons in the struggle to revise education to meet the needs of diverse communities Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2005 In the 1960s Black Studies emerged as both an academic field and a radical new ideological paradigm Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama Black Studies Temple U both influential and renowned scholars have compiled an encyclopedia for students high school and beyond and general readers It presents analysis of key individuals events a Storied Inquiries in International Landscapes Tonya Huber, 2010-06-01 Storied Lives Emancipatory Educational Inquiry Experience Narrative Pedagogy in the International Landscape of Diversity contains exemplary research practices strategies and findings gleaned from the contributions to the 15 issues of the Journal of Critical Inquiry Into Curriculum and Instruction JCI CI Founding Editor Tonya Huber initiated the JCI CI in 1997 as a refereed journal committed to publishing educational scholarship and research of professionals in graduate study The journal was distinguished by its requirement that the scholarship be the result of the first author s graduate research according to Cabell s Directory the first journal to do so Equally important the third issue of each volume targeted wide representation of cultures and world regions Current thinking on written by members of the JCI CI Editorial Advisory Board explores state of the art topics related to curriculum inquiry Illustrations photography e g Sebastião Salgado s Workers in vol 2 collage student generated art artifacts and full color art enhance cutting edge methodologies extending educational research through Aboriginal and Native oral traditions arts based analysis found poetry data poetry narrative and case study foci on liberatory pedagogy and social justice action research Colour Matters Carl E. Diaspora, Memory and Identity Vijay Agnew, 2005-01-01 Memories establish a connection between a collective and individual past between origins heritage and history Those who have left their places of birth to make homes elsewhere are familiar with the question Where do you come from and respond in innumerable well rehearsed ways Diasporas construct racialized sexualized gendered and oppositional subjectivities and shape the cosmopolitan intellectual commitment of scholars The diasporic individual often has a double consciousness a privileged knowledge and perspective that is consonant with postmodernity and globalization The essays in this volume reflect on the movements of people and cultures in the present day when physical social and mental borders and boundaries are being challenged and sometimes successfully dismantled The contributors from a variety of disciplinary perspectives discuss the diasporic experiences of ethnic and racial groups living in Canada from their perspective including the experiences of South Asians Iranians West Indians Chinese and Eritreans Diaspora Memory and Identity is an exciting and innovative collection of essays that examines the nuanced development of theories of Diaspora subjectivity double consciousness gender and class experiences and the nature of home

Feminist Engagements Kathleen Weiler, 2002-06-01 Feminist Engagements is a collection of essays by some of the top names in feminist education in which they read and revision the works of the major twentieth century theorists in education and cultural studies this bridge we call home Gloria Anzaldúa, AnaLouise Keating, 2013-10-18 More than twenty years after the ground breaking anthology This Bridge Called My Back called upon feminists to envision new forms of communities and practices Gloria E Anzaldúa and AnaLouise Keating have painstakingly assembled a new collection of over eighty original writings that offers a bold new vision of women of color consciousness for the twenty first century Written by women and men both of color and white this bridge we call home will challenge readers to rethink existing categories and invent new individual and collective identities Refusing the Limits of Contemporary Childhood Julie C. Garlen, Neil T.

Ramjewan, 2023-12-11 Each of the essays in this collection considers what lies beyond the limiting discourses of childhood innocence Instead of focusing on how children grow up as has been the focus of developmental science for over a century we ask what it might mean for discourses of childhood to finally grow out of childhood innocence The authors featured in this volume explore this question through critical approaches that actively refuse the limits of normative and normalizing conceptions of the child by surfacing and centering complex multiplicitous configurations of childhood Together these perspectives challenge existing discourses and social practices to reveal how power operates in and through the child and its uses
