Doing More With Less Barbara Dane,Carol Tosone,Alice Wolson,2001-07-01 Confronting the challenge to provide sound clinical treatment in brief therapy this timely book will enrich the practices of all psychotherapists Designed and arranged according to the DSM IV diagnostic categories each chapter addresses the short term treatment of a specific condition or patient population Starting from the premise that psychodynamically trained clinicians already possess the requisite skills to conduct short term treatment the editors demonstrate how to adapt these skills to a time limited approach

Helping Yourself Help Others Rosalynn Carter,Susan K. Golant,2023-07-17 In Helping Yourself Help Others former first lady Rosalynn Carter draws upon her own experiences and those of hundreds of others to offer reassuring practical advice to caregivers Long before the COVID 19 pandemic inspired national conversations about the vast undervaluing of unpaid caregiving the dangers of burnout and the merits of self care for relief Rosalynn Carter was shining a light on these matters and everything else that caregivers confront

Awakening to Disability Karen G. Stone,1997

We Cry Out John DeFrain PH D,John S. Campbell,Susan Dahl MS,2006 How does a developmental disability affect an individual throughout the course of life What impact does the disability have on the individual's family. What strengths do families use to cope with these disabilities? What do they do that works? And what doesn't work? These are the kinds of questions we have been asking individuals and families in our research over the past 15 years. This book was written to report their stories and to honor these people who have shared their lives and their cries from the heart with us. It is both a positive book and a realistic book full of love and grief and tenderness and anger and kindness and sorrow and courage. It is as real as the people who gave us the gift of their lives. Coping with Lupus Robert H. Phillips, 2001. A diagnosis of lupus is understandably disquieting and can cause emotional turmoil. After all, there is no cure for the disease and managing its debilitating symptoms can be challenging. This completely revised and updated edition of Coping with Lupus answers all the important questions you may have about this disease of the autoimmune system. Writing in a warm, engaging style, Dr. Robert Phillips offers useful information and practical coping strategies to help you through a stressful time. He lends his expertise in dealing with the psychological aspects of chronic health problems and provides the most recent medical information about lupus.

What to Do When Someone You Love Is Depressed, Second Edition Mitch Golant, Ph.D., Susan K. Golant, 2007-08-07. Originally published New York: Villard Books, 1996. A Journey John S. Campbell MD, 2006-06. All of us repeatedly grieve, heal, and reinvent ourselves throughout our lives. Being aware of and active in this inherent aspect of our existence, I believe to be a less painful and more satisfying way of living than blindly struggling with or resisting these natural processes. John S. Campbell MD, author of A Journey: Creative Grieving and Healing. We all die, he seems to be telling us. What is far more important is that we live a meaningful life before that time comes. We all need to dig deep to find our own wisdom so we may understand what John is telling us. Nikki DeFrain MS and John DeFrain PhD from their Foreword. Life on Hold David G. Seiler, Laurel S. Brunvoll, 2006-06-01. Beyond sending a get well card, many people know little about supporting someone through a serious illness, let alone passing through one themselves. Life on Hold answers the need of many people who face or may soon be faced with a health crisis of longer duration. Written by a father and daughter who lost their wife and mother to an extended battle with cancer, this sensitive personal journal is dotted with illustrations from real-life survivors. Each chapter offers tools for dealing with the challenges of physical illness. A practical spiritual handbook, it shows sufferers, ministers, lay workers, family, and friends how to trust God during a season of recovery or release. Scripture and counsel on getting through the first several weeks are among this book's most rare and precious gifts. Disability Romel W. Mackelprang, Richard O. Salsgiver, 2016. Disability is a tool for human service practitioners to use in understanding disability from an empowerment social model perspective. The text addresses policy, theory, description, and practice from a strengths-based viewpoint, stressing disability as a difference rather than as dysfunction. The book establishes the historical and societal context in which those with disabilities are marginalized, discusses the major groupings of disabilities, and offers a model for assessment and practice.
