What Drawing and Painting Really Mean Paul Crowther, 2017-04-21 Drawings and paintings are made and the process of making creates unique meanings that transform our perception of space time and our sense of finitude By using a phenomenological approach the understanding of art practice and its relation to particular historical and cultural contexts can be significantly enhanced Taking Up Drawing and Painting Guy R. Art Narrative (PAN) Karen O. Wallace, Patrick J. Lewis, 2020-06-02 Trauma affects the lives of many children who we teach in school. It affects the students, teachers who teach them, the administration and the school community as it is part of the school environment and culture. Teachers and administrators have great potential to set up an environment and adopt an attitude that can help heal the trauma in the lives of their students. Schools need to become trauma informed to be able to provide for the growing number of refugee children who have experienced terrorism, crime, war and abuse to better help some Indigenous children who, due to systemic racism and discriminatory policies, have been traumatised and live daily with trauma and the growing number of all children who have experienced various kinds of trauma during their life span. Trauma informed schools means that all students can feel safe enough to learn, succeed academically and thrive after having undergone a traumatic event. Trauma Informed Teaching demonstrates how Play Art Narrative PAN can be instrumental in creating trauma informed schools. The authors provide play art and narrative techniques and activities that educators can use to safely work therapeutically with traumatised children and youth. The Year's Art ..., 1893 The Builder, 1875

Arts Digest, 1937 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1910 Yale University Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain, Charles Henry Smith, Albert Lee, 1900 The Older Prisoner Diete Humblet, 2021-01-23 This book critically explores the world of older prisoners to provide a more nuanced understanding of imprisonment at old age. Through an ethnographical study of male and female older prisoners in two Belgian prison settings, one in which older prisoners are integrated and one in which they are segregated, it informs debates and seeks to recognise ageist discourse, attitudes, practices in prison. The Older Prisoner seeks to situate the older prisoner from both a penological and gerontological perspective, organised around the following broad themes: the construction of the older prisoner, the physical prison world, the social prison world, surviving prison and giving meaning. The book allows readers to navigate between contrasting perspectives and voices rather than reinforcing traditional narratives and prevailing discourses on the older prisoner. In doing so, it hopes to open up a broader dialogue on ageing and punishment. It also offers insights into the concept of meaning.
