Index to Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends Mary Huse Eastman, 1926 The Eve/Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan Dellita Martin-Ogunsola, 2004 In this first book length study in English devoted to Duncan's work Martin Ogunsola explores the issues of race class and gender in five of Duncan's major works published during the 1970s Focusing primarily on the roles of women Martin Ogunsola uses the figures of Eve and the Egyptian slave Hagar to provide through metaphor an in depth analysis of the female characters portrayed in Duncan's prose Specifically the Eve Hagar paradigm is employed to examine how the essential characteristics of femininity play out in the context of ethnicity and caste The book begins with Dawn Song 1970 the story of Antillean immigrants struggling with migration oppression and resistance while adapting to a new environment and continues through Dead End Street 1979 a novel exploring the ramifications of the myths perpetuated through history that defines Costa Rica in terms of Euro Hispanic culture Martin Ogunsola illustrates Duncan's use of a female presence that challenges the traditional treatment of women in literature Spanning the period between the initial settlement of the Atlantic region of Costa Rica during the early years of the twentieth century to the 1948 Costa Rican Civil War Martin Ogunsola's book invites the reader to view the world through the eyes of Duncan's female characters The Eve Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan examines some of the most compelling issues of contemporary Latin American literature and illustrates how a prominent Costa Rican writer deconstructs the stereotype of woman as wife lover slave In the process Duncan finds his own voice Exposing aspects of Costa Rican society that have historically been kept in the shadows this volume makes a significant contribution to our knowledge of the Latin American literary canon BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Index to Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends Mary Huse Eastman, 1937 For contents see Author Catalog The Dawn of Agriculture and the Earliest States in Genesis 1-11 Natan Levy, 2023-11-29 This book invites a close textual encounter with the first 11 chapters of Genesis as an intimate drama of marginalised peoples wrestling with the rise of the world's first grain states in the Mesopotamian alluvium The initial 11 chapters of Genesis are often considered discordant and fragmentary despite being a story of beginnings within the context of the Bible Readers discover how these formative chapters cohere as a cross generational account of peoples grappling with the hegemonic spread of domesticated grain production and the concomitant rise of the pristine states of Mesopotamia The book reveals how key episodes from the Genesis narrative reflect major societal revolutions of the Neolithic period in Mesopotamia through a three fold hermeneutical method literary analysis of the Bible and contemporary cuneiform texts modern scholarship from archaeological anthropological ecological and historical sources and relevant exegesis from the Second Temple and rabbinical era These three strands entwine to recount a generally sequential story of the earliest archaic states as narrated by non elites at the margins of these emerging state spaces The Dawn of Agriculture and the Earliest States in Genesis 1-11 provides a fascinating reading of the first 11 chapters

Senft,2015-08-05 This volume presents 22 tales from the Trobriand Islands told by children boys between the age of 5 and 9 years and adults The monograph is motivated not only by the anthropological linguistic aim to present a broad and quite unique collection of tales with the thematic approach to illustrate which topics and themes constitute the content of the stories but also by the psycholinguistic and textlinguistic questions of how children acquire linearization and other narrative strategies how they develop them and how they use them to structure these texts in an adult like way The tales are presented in morpheme interlinear transcriptions with first textlinguistic analyses and cultural background information necessary to fully understand them A summarizing comparative analysis of the texts from a psycholinguistic anthropological linguistic and philological point of view discusses the underlying schemata of the stories the means narrators use to structure them their structural complexity and their cultural specificity The Customary Law of the Rawalpindi District Punjab,1910

Hausa Tales and Traditions Neil Skinner, 2019-06-03 Originally published in 1969 this book is a translation of Frank Edgar's Hausa folk stories which was made primarily in Sokoto Province at the direction of Major John Alder who in 1910 gave Edgar some Hausa texts written in the Ajemic script for transliteration into Roman characters Edgar prepared the the first volume of the Tatsuniyoyi for publication in 1911 The Hausa whose folklore Edgar recorded so industriously are the largest ethnic group in Northern Nigeria and number many millions and these tales of past events show how Hausa conceive the histories of their states the characters of their rulers and their institutions of government and law These traditions are thus equally important as documents of folk thought and as historical sources
