Islam as their compass Hamka Haji Abdul Malik Karim Amrullah was born when Indonesia was still a Dutch colony and came of age as the nation itself was emerging through tumultuous periods of Japanese occupation revolution and early independence He became a prominent author and controversial public figure In his lifetime of prodigious writing Hamka advanced Islam as a liberating enlightened and hopeful body of beliefs around which the new nation could form and prosper He embraced science human agency social justice and democracy arguing that these modern concepts comported with Islam s true teachings Hamka unfolded this big idea his Great Story decade by decade in a vast outpouring of writing that included novels and poems and chatty newspaper columns biographies memoirs and histories and lengthy studies of theology including a thirty volume commentary on the Holy Qur an In introducing this influential figure and his ideas to a wider audience this sweeping biography also illustrates a profound global process how public debates about religion are shaping national societies in the postcolonial world Asian Bibliography ,1975 Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood,2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies in monuments and in school textbooks The author describes an official history stretching from the proto Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965 He also gives a counterview to this history stressing Indonesia s place in the larger Islamic world The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided Index to Australian Book Reviews ,1975 Includes entries supplied by University of Queensland Library Staff
