Tales Of Sonoma County Reflections On A Golden Age:

Tales of Sonoma County William Chapman Shipley, 2000 Chinese Laundries John Jung, 2007 A social history of the role of the Chinese laundry on the survival of early Chinese immigrants in the U S during the Chinese Exclusion law period 1882 1943 and in Canada during the years of the Head Tax 1885 1923 and exclusion law 1923 1947 Why and how Chinese got into the laundry business and how they had to fight discriminatory laws and competition from white owned laundries to survive Description of their lives work demands and living conditions Reflections by a sample of children who grew up living in the backs of their laundries provide vivid first person glimpses of the difficult lives of Chinese laundrymen and their families

Tales of Sonoma County William Chapman Shipley, 1938 Golden Memories of the Redwood Empire Lee Torliatt, 2001 The high tech paradise just north of San Francisco known as the Redwood Empire was once a land of vineyards chicken ranches orchards and dairies Using their own words and vintage photographs here are the stories of the area s residents and their 100 years of history from the lost glitter of the Gold Rush to end of World War II The stories recalled here come from the reflections of the people who kept their towns and farms running on a daily basis Among the voices heard in these chapters are Healdsburg s Ferguson family pioneer survivors of the westward trail and David Wharff who brought the first chickens to Sonoma County helping create the World s Egg Basket Through the great Santa Rosa earthquake of 1906 to the devastating flu epidemic of World War I to the Santa Rosa Petaluma Big Game riot of 1943 these diary interview and newspaper accounts cover a century of rich history in the Redwood Empire California Historian , 2001 Geography of Time, Place, Movement and Networks, Volume 5 Stanley D. Brunn, 2024-05-27 This book investigates both early as well as recent accounts of journeys by women and families in African Asian East European North and Latin American contexts It discusses how places place settings and transport routes whether by land sea or air were and remain important in the impacts these newcomers have on states and regions The contributions to this book provide insight in laws and regulations related to women s and refugees rights They highlight the importance of place and location in defining rights and implementing reforms such as the importance of the politics and the state in identifying rights in global contexts of refugee resettlement cross border employment security and reshaping human institutions as well as the changing legal landscape related to for instance women participating in the Olympic Games and in national sports The book also touches on the worlds of family landscapes mapping family trees family cemeteries and redefining immigrant city mixes As such the book offers readers to explore past present and future issues faced by women and families regardless of place or country Pacific Rural Press , 1878 American Book Publishing Record , 2001 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record , 1924 Consumer Magazine & Agri-media Source , 1994-04 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1975 Haunted Places Dennis William Hauck, 2002 Describes over 2 000 sites of supernatural occurrences in the United States including places visited by ghosts UFOs and unusual creatures

Petaluma Katherine J. Rinehart, 2005 Petaluma's past is uniquely reflected in its historic architecture. The town's earliest commercial buildings tightly lined the waterfront of the Petaluma River at one time the busiest transportation corridor in the North Bay. After the railroad arrived an already thriving dairy and manufacturing city became the nation's largest poultry and egg producer. A vital economy brought factories like the impressive Sunset Line Twine plant, hatcheries, vast warehouses and grain elevators that have become defining Petaluma landmarks. Its handsome downtown listed on the National Register of Historic Places is noted for its Italianate cast-iron front commercial buildings and a variety of pre-World War II residential styles surround it in charming neighborhoods. A favorite of moviemakers, its classic main streets played a central role in the film American Graffiti. Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events, 1975 New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1968 The Golden Rule, 1848 The New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1968 Dwell, 2001-06 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution. We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being. We think that good design is an integral part of real life. And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines.
