Sounds and the City Brett Lashua, Stephen Wagg, Karl Spracklen, M. Selim Yavuz, 2018-10-24 This book draws from a rich history of scholarship about the relations between music and cities and the global flows between music and urban experience The contributions in this collection comment on the global city as a nexus of moving people changing places and shifting social relations asking what popular music can tell us about cities and vice versa Since the publication of the first Sounds and the City volume various movements changes and shifts have amplified debates about globalization From the waves of people migrating to Europe from the Syrian civil war and other conflict zones to the 2016 Brexit vote to leave the European Union and American presidential election of Donald Trump These and other events appear to have exposed an anti globalist retreat toward isolationism and a backlash against multiculturalism that has been termed post globalization Amidst this what of popular music Does music offer renewed spaces and avenues for public protest for collective action and resistance What can the diverse histories hybridities and legacies of popular music tell us about the ever changing relations of people and cities Cinema at the City's Edge Yomi Braester, James Tweedie, 2010-12-01 East Asia is a pivotal region in the advancement of media technologies globalized consumerism and branding economies City and urban spaces are now attracting cinematic imaginaries and the academic examination of visual images and urban space in East Asian contexts Highlighting changing conceptions and blurring boundaries of where city ends and cinema begins this collection offers an original contribution to film media and cultural studies urban studies and sociology Koichi Iwabuchi Waseda University The originality of this book on the fragmented cities of Asia lies in the manner in which it pins down the relationship between visual images and urban space The arguments are eloquent and persuasive with close readings of critical media texts Many of the dynamic issues tackled in the book are on the edge of film and cultural studies in Asia and should attract a wide readership Zhou Xuelin University of Auckland
