Tales Of The Midnight Sun:

Tales of the Midnight Sun John P. Orban, 2001-05 We live in a complex rational world and also in a world of unexplained paranormal realities The transit of our selves our souls and our minds through the passage of time is a metaphysical process that remains as it has been throughout history an ongoing mystery We are truly suspended in a mystical process that men over the centuries have tried to make into some kind of sense and yield a solution or explanation Questions such as who we are where we came from where we ultimately go as well as what is the meaning of what we experience in life are the sum and substance of the essentials questions that we as mortals ultimately face In these tales an approach that probes our instinct to imagine resolution to esoteric questions is placed before the reader You will find your ability to expand your consciousness tested and hopefully you will learn from these provocative protagonists how their answers were found Some believe that a New Age is before mankind if we can avert our tragically destructive instincts and mechanisms Perhaps in that New Age we all have to dream of and fight for positive changes and hope that the reality of life on Earth will blossom positively This collection of novellas describes a utopian view of our experience as a positive metaphysical race and attempts to push the envelope of reality

Stories of the Midnight Sun Daniel Hunt, 2005-04 An excerpt from Stories of the Midnight Sun Tom moved to take the lead and Father Michael followed nearly at his side They cautiously moved down the slope under the shadow of bare trees whose branches rose above them like the hands of desperate petitioners imploring the moon The footprints were closer together and it appeared to Tom as if the left leg of the woman had been somehow injured for it drug in the snow He was surprised not to find a trail of blood No blood No blood It seemed so odd to him The whole night seemed steeped in a dream a nonsensical play that had no rhyme or reason What had happened to the woman Why had she not simply rung the doorbell Why had she turned away from the barn Why run into the night away from warmth and safety Why didn't she answer their calls And why for all that was holy did she turn down this darkened path out of the meager light of the moon toward the cold depths where the Old Maid ran like an artery through the heart of the ancient prairie It made Tom angry It made him scared He began swearing at regular intervals under his breath
