Tales of Time & Tide Brian Philip Martin,1994      Tales of Time and Tide Brian P. Martin,1994      Coast: Our Island Story Nicholas Crane,2010-10-31 Along our shores towering cliffs from the age of the dinosaurs rise beside wide estuaries teeming with wildlife while Victorian ports share waterfronts with imposing fortifications And the people who have lived worked and played on this spectacular coast from Stone Age fishermen to seafarers chart makers and surfers have an incredible tale to tell Coast Our Island Story is an enthralling account sparkling with geography history adventure and eccentric characters told with Nick Crane s trademark charisma and wit      On the Shores of the Great Sea, Book I of the Story of the World M. B. Synge,2013-01-01      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000-06      The Sea Frederick Whympers,1872      The story of the world (by M.B. Synge). Margaret Bertha Synge,1903      The Paras - The Inside Story of Britain's Toughest Regiment John Parker,2012-08-06 Since their foundation during the Second World War the Parachute Regiment has acquired a formidable reputation as tough fearless soldiers The Red Devils have played a key role in many of the battles of the past sixty years the capture of Sicily the D Day landing the heroic but doomed attempt to capture the bridge at Arnhem In the savage wars of peace since the Second World War the Paras have seen action all over the world from Cyprus Palestine Egypt Borneo and the Falklands to Bosnia For his authoritative book John Parker has gathered together the testimony of numerous veterans of the Parachute Regiment Their first hand accounts of the major events in their history make enthralling reading bringing home the reality and cruelty of combat      Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1895      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1892      Moonlight over England the Story of One Nightfighter Pilot Eric P. Donald,2013-04-18 I came across an old photo recently and pondered the people in it The person in the centre was my late brother Norman G Donald of the RAF The other figures in the photo I do not know though I suspect they were his flight instructors at North Battleford Canada The photo bears my brothers script KING PINS ALL N BATTLEFORD After qualifying as a pilot he sailed back to England and was posted to RAF Hunsdon just north of London in 1942 He was soon flying Douglas Havocs and Bristol Beaufighters Night fighters were a new school of defence but it was hopeless finding enemy aircraft in the dark The Turbinlite device was fitted to the Beaufighters and Havocs and the idea was to find the enemy somehow guided by ground control using heavy ground radar units too heavy to carry in aircraft turn on the Turbinlite searchlight and illuminate the enemy aircraft A single engined Hurricane fighter flying alongside then shot down the enemy aircraft It did help to see the target as this same sky was full of thousands of Allied aircraft all trying to avoid each other      On the Shores of the Great Sea M. B. Synge,2018-03-01 It is strange to think of a very old world when men knew nothing of the great salt sea that washed their shores and nothing of the wonderful lands that lay beyond Each day the sun rose and set as it does to day but they did not know the reason why the rivers flowed through the land but they did not know whence they came or whither they went      The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09

From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture      Boys' Life ,1984-06 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting
