

The book cover has a dark blue background with a stylized space scene. At the top, a ringed planet like Saturn is depicted with white and yellow rings. Below it, a large, bright yellow crescent moon is shown. The background is filled with small white stars and larger, soft yellow and orange nebulae. A thick, wavy yellow line curves across the middle of the cover. The title is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a black outline. The authors' names are listed vertically on the left and right sides. The entire cover is framed by a decorative border of yellow and white swirling lines. In the bottom left and right corners, there are circular motifs: the left one contains a solid yellow circle, and the right one contains a yellow crescent moon and three small stars.
