Indecent Obsession: A Forced Proximity. Bodyguard, Romantic Suspense Lori Sjöberg, Six years after tragedy drove her from the Hollywood scene actress Vicky Hale is ready for a comeback She's found the right role in just the right movie and if everything goes according to plan it'll launch her back onto the A list But she's also attracted the attention of a stalker with a dangerous indecent obsession Enter Ryan Flint a bodyguard so sexy he makes her weak at the knees Ryan's the best in the business a consummate professional who plays by the rules and never mixes business with pleasure That means Vicky's off limits but with each passing day it's getting harder to ignore the sizzling chemistry that might burn them both Not to mention letting her into his life means sharing secrets from his past that he'd rather leave dead and buried In the end he'll do what it takes to keep her safe but the greatest risk might be to his heart A sizzling standalone romance Each book of the Southern Alphas Series follows a different couple American Book Publishing Record, 1996-05 Historian of the Strange Judith T. Zeitlin, 1993 This is the first book in English on the seventeenth century Chinese masterpiece Liaozhai's Records of the Strange Liaozhai zhiyi by Pu Songling a collection of nearly five hundred fantastic tales and anecdotes written in Classical Chinese TLA Film, Video, and DVD Guide 2002-2003 David Bleiler, 2001-11-03 A film video and DVD guide for the true lover of the cinema this volume focuses on independent and international films as well as the best of the mainstream 450 photos throughout When Heimat Meets Hollywood Christine Haase, 2007 Contemporary connections between German directors and Hollywood and their implications for German American and transnational film The film histories of Germany and the United States have long been seen as intertwined but scholarship has focused on migr works of the 1930s and 1940s on links between Weimar film and American film noir and on the conflicted relationship between directors of the New German Cinema and Hollywood Recently German film studies has begun reexamining the interconnection of the two film cultures and focusing on the internationalism of German cinema but little research has been done on contemporary German directors involvement in American cinema a gap in scholarship that this book fills The study offers ways of understanding current German cinematic engagement with America and different directorial responses to the hegemonic pressures of Hollywood It delineates the historical trajectory of German American film relations in the 20th century then analyzes the careers and works of four German born directors who have significant ties with American cinema Wolfgang Petersen Roland Emmerich Percy Adlon and Tom Tykwer A series of close readings of their productions isolates the cinematic practices and strategies with which these filmmakers negotiate the different national cultural and cinematic paradigms they traverse The book analyzes constructions of national cultural identity probes the boundaries of national cinemas and expands our understanding of emerging hybrid film cultures It is a contribution to German film studies and to the emerging field of transnational film studies Christine Haase is Associate Professor of German at the University of Georgia The Seduction of the Mediterranean Robert Aldrich, 2002-09-11 Through an explanation of forty figures in European culture The Seduction of the Mediterranean argues that the Mediterranean classical and contemporary was the central theme in homoerotic writing and art from the 1750s to the 1950s Episodes of exile murder drug taking wild homosexual orgies and court cases are woven into an original study of a significant theme in European culture The myth of a homoerotic Mediterranean made a major contribution to general attitudes towards Antiquity the Renaissance and modern Italy and Greece Jeanette Winterson Sonya Andermahr, 2008-11-25 In this comprehensive introduction to Winterson's work Sonya Andermahr considers its significance in the context of contemporary British culture and literary history Including an interview with the author this guide offers an accessible reading of all Winterson's work and an overview of the varied critical reception this has received

The Columbia Anthology of Gay Literature Byrne Fone,1998 Here at last is a single volume that reveals the bright thread of gay literature throughout the Western tradition With hundreds of works by authors ranging from Ovid to James Baldwin from Plato to Oscar Wilde The Columbia Anthology of Gay Literature presents a wide range of poetry fiction essays and autobiography that depict love friendship intimacy desire and sex between men A Companion to Romance Corinne Saunders,2008-04-15 Romance is a varied and fluid literary genre notoriously difficult to define This groundbreaking Companion surveys the many permutations of romance throughout the ages Considers the literary and historical development of the romance genre from its classical origins to the present day Incorporates discussion of the changing readership of romance and of romance's special relation to women readers Comprises 30 essays written by leading authorities on different periods and sub genres Challenges the idea that the appeal of romance is exclusively escapist Draws on a wide range of specific and influential literary examples The Winged Dancer Camarin Grae,1986 When a dying man asks lesbian feminist Kat Rogan to deliver a coded message to his sister in South America she is thrust into an incredible adventure Great Love Stories of the Theatre Charles Collins,1911 Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide Nick Rennison,2009-01-01 Deciding what to read next when you've just finished an unputdownable novel can be a daunting task The Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide features hundreds of authors and thousands of titles with navigation features to lead you on a rich journey through some of the best literature to grace our shelves This greatly expanded edition includes the latest contemporary authors and landmark novels an expanded non fiction section a timeline setting historical events against literary milestones prize winner and book club lists An accessible and easy to read guide that no serious book lover should be without The essential guide to the wild uncharted world of contemporary and 20th century writing Robert McCrum The Observer The Happy Man Lied: A Tale of Trial, Truth and Transformation Floyd W. Mackler,2010-11-11 If you could but see it nearly everything about the way human culture treats sex is expressive of fear If sex were a child it would be the most battered and brutalized child in the universe In its genuine spiritual or authentic character sex is repressed suppressed denied covered up legislated caged and not allowed to see the light of day while at the same time in its institutionalized and public expressions it is distorted exploited ridiculed flagrantly flashed in everyone's face and paraded through the streets This book is the narration of a young man who died of AIDS in the early 1990's It is a graphic description of his homosexual drives and engagements Then it turns to his personal encounter with the Grace of God That is followed by his ongoing transformation and a prophetic ministry from God through him Can it aid the reader to wake up to the power of the Risen One that resides within those that believe Contemporary Rewritings of Liminal Women Miriam Borham-Puyal,2020-01-15 This book explores the concept of liminality in the representation of women in eighteenth and nineteenth century literature as well as in contemporary rewritings such as novels films television shows videogames and graphic novels In particular the volume focuses on vampires prostitutes quixotes and detectives as examples of new women who inhabit the margins of society and populate its narratives Therefore it places together for the first time four important liminal identities while it explores a relevant corpus that comprises four centuries and several countries Its diachronic transnational and comparative approach emphasizes the representation across time and space of female sexuality gender violence and women s rights also employing a liminal stance in its literary analysis facing the past in order to understand the present By underlining the dialogue between past and present this monograph contributes to contemporary debates on the representation of women and the construction of femininity as opposed to hegemonic masculinity for it exposes the line of thought that has brought us to the present moment hence challenging assumed stereotypes and narratives In addition by using popular narratives and media the present work highlights the value of literature films or alternative forms of storytelling to understand how women s place in society their voice and their presence have been and are still negotiated in spaces of visibility agency and power

Detective Fiction and the Problem of Knowledge Antoine Dechéne, 2018-08-16

This book establishes the genealogy of a subgenre of crime fiction that Antoine Dechéne calls the metacognitive mystery tale It delineates a corpus of texts presenting unreadable mysteries which under the deceptively monolithic appearance of subverting traditional detective story conventions offer a multiplicity of motifs the overwhelming presence of chance the unfulfilled quest for knowledge the urban stroller lost in a labyrinthine text that generate a vast array of epistemological and ontological uncertainties Analysing the works of a wide variety of authors including Edgar Allan Poe Jorge Luis Borges and Henry James this book is vital reading for scholars of detective fiction
