Tales From The Out Of Time Cafe:

Maestro and Other Stories Phillip Mann, 2014-05-29 Six stories from Phillip Mann taken from his long and varied career Includes stories from the Out of Time Cafe a very unusual refuge from reality It attracts people afflicted with a deep malaise It offers what seems from the outside to be sanctuary but it can be subversive too for on entering the cafe one gives up a certain amount of independence and before one knows it one is trapped There is no escape save one the lift which services the cellars descends but no one who has used the lift has ever returned On a brighter note the cafe has a will of its own and travels different dimensions with ease and every journey is a new beginning Also featured are The Gospel According to Mickey Mouse originally produced as a hugely successful radio play Maestro Lux in Tenebris a cautionary tale about a medieval stonemason's encounter with an anachronism and the effect it has on his culture and An Old Fashioned Story wherein Jody is having problems with his Sythno companion Elizabeth who head butted him without warning He is attempting to repair her Then Elizabeth and her Sythno Joseph from next door drop in Tales from the Astral Cafe Jared Pixley, 2003-02-28 Just because you only bought lunch doesn't mean that's all you're going to get Tales from the Pour House Café Larry Dunlap, 2010-11 The wackiest characters this side of Mayberry stumble through misadventures with Southern wit and audacity Leonard Elvis and Jelly the main characters find themselves in one catastrophe after another a holdup a pickle eating contest a giant snake and the capture of a Chinese troll as well as the ordinary problems of life The stories are told by the Preacher who is the narrator Kind hearts and good intentions clash with reality and mess ups in this zany glimpse of rural America as it was and still is in a place called The Pour House Cafe in Maple Hill Tennessee This book is to entertainment what cornbread is to black-eyed peas Elvis Wilbanks Tales from the Out of Time Cafe Phillip Mann, 1996 Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty-six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well-known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non-fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Stories from the Blue Moon Café III Sonny Brewer, 2004 Presents short stories set in the South from such writers as Daniel Wallace Rick Bragg Mary Ward Brown Juliana Gray and Alix Strauss Stories from the Blue Moon Cafe II Sonny

Brewer,2003 Presents a collection of short stories from such authors as Tom Franklin Donald Hays Suzanne Hudson and Michelle Richmond Stories from the Blue Moon Café IV Sonny Brewer,2005 The fourth edition of the acclaimed Blue Moon Cafe series serves up another hearty helping of Southern fiction essays poems and musical musings by both seasoned prize winners and up and coming writers With stories ranging from a heartbreaking funeral for a beloved goat and an aspiring musician s move to Nashville to the memory of two children who disappear in the thick summer heat this diverse collection is sure to satisfy everyone s appetite BOOK JACKET Stories from the Café: Volume One Kat Simons,2025-07-30 Welcome to The Caf Enter a world where magic mingles with everyday life in this caf attached to a bookstore Where the owner a witch named Nina and her familiar a Maine coon named Boo preside over guests that come in all shapes sizes and abilities From the mundane to the mystical The mysterious to the criminal And at least one unexplainable patron who loves her tea Stories of love magic conflict revenge and more With cameos from reader favorite characters from Kat Simons fiction This is a world where there are no rules Just delicious drinks a welcoming atmosphere and the scent of coffee blending with the smell of books Come into The Caf at KatSimonsBooks A place to relax A place to find community A place to settle in and enjoy a good read And maybe witness a little magic Don t miss this first volume of Stories from The Caf Stories from the Vienna Cafe Rudolf Kommer,1915 The Star Café & Other Stories Mary Caponegro,1991 A breathtaking debut The Star Cafe heralds an utterly original artist already writing with something like mastery Robert Kelly Stories out of school-time, by Ascott R. Hope Ascott Robert Hope Moncrieff,1884 Stories, Senses and the Charismatic Relation Jamie Barnes,2020-10-13 Stories Senses and the Charismatic Relation offers a uniquely intimate and auto ethnographic exploration of Christian experience rendering a deep phenomenological account of how devotional worlds become real how they are experienced shaped constituted and performed by those who live them The book starts from a reflexive exploration of the author s own experiences of the divine considers the spiritual journeys of family members and the spiritual community of which he was a part and draws on ethnographic fieldwork in the southern Balkans where that community was based Jamie Barnes considers three main elements firstly the role that sensory aspects of experience play in constituting one s lived world and one s ideas about the kinds of beings inhabiting it secondly how stories and metaphors are tactically employed not only in the process of expressing aspects of past experience but also in shaping and forming both desired worlds and future pathways thirdly how such sensed narrated and lived worlds are tentatively held together in hope trust and love through charismatic relationships of devotion with a divine Other This unusual and innovative ethnography offers a unique and reflexive view from within the world of Christian experience The Crime of the French Café and Other Stories Nicholas Carter,2019-12-05 In The Crime of the French Caf and Other Stories Nicholas Carter expertly weaves a tapestry of suspense and intrigue through a series of interconnected tales set against the backdrop of early 20th century Paris With a rich narrative style that combines vivid descriptions and sharp dialogue Carter immerses readers in the atmospheric allure of the city while exploring themes of crime morality and the complexities of human nature Each story is intricately structured reflecting the influences of contemporary literary forms such as the detective genre and the burgeoning short story movement allowing for an all encompassing exploration of societal issues of the time Nicholas Carter a prominent figure in early American fiction was known for his prolific output and ability to captivate audiences with his mystery narratives His experiences as a journalist and a keen observer of human behavior informed his writing enabling him to create characters imbued with realism and depth Carter s fascination with criminal psychology and societal norms of the era drove him to reflect these themes in his work shaping a narrative style that is both engaging and thought provoking This collection is a must read for aficionados of classic literature and crime fiction alike Carter s masterful storytelling not only provides thrilling narratives but also prompts readers to contemplate the moral dilemmas of crime and punishment The Crime of the French Caf and Other Stories invites you into a world where every shadow holds a secret making it an essential addition to any literary library
