Tales from the Track, 2007 Stories of the adventures of race car Lightning McQueen Mater and their 4 wheeled friends based on the Disney Pixar movie Cars Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz, 2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children s and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges Tales of Superhuman Powers Csenge Virág Zalka, 2013-09-20 Csenge Virag Zalka a Hungarian storyteller has collected 55 folktales from around the world about supernatural abilities like superhuman strength invulnerability flying heightened senses speed invisibility healing agility precognition telepathy fire manipulation teleportation water powers and shifting These tales represent powers that people have dreamed of conjured up and strived for through the ages Many of the powers are present in popular culture making the superheroes who wield them the direct descendants of characters such as the princess who could see through walls or the invulnerable Isfandiyar Zalka excluded stories about magic or about gods with divine powers and focused on less well known stories She included information on similar heroes the ability in the story sources of the powers the origin of the story teachings in it the recommended age group sources variants and comments Medievalism and Reception Dr Ellie Crookes, Ika Willis, Ellie Crookes, 2024-12-03 The relationship between medievalism and reception explored via a rich variety of case studies At the intersection of the twin fields of medievalism and reception studies is the timely and fascinating question of how a contested past is deployed in the context of a conflicted and contradictory present Despite their shared roots and a fundamental orientation towards the entanglement of past and present the term reception is rarely taken up in medievalist scholarship and they have developed along parallel but divergent lines evolving their own emphases problematics sensibilities vocabularies and critical tools This book is the first to reunite these two fields Its introduction and first chapter clearly set out their tangled intellectual and disciplinary histories The ten essays that follow reflect upon the relationship between medievalism and reception in theory and in practice through thematically temporally and geographically expansive case studies engaging with theories of translation postcolonialism fan studies persona studies and Indigenous studies Individual topics examined include the cultural impact of Robin Hood the Tulsa race massacre the crusades in the nineteenth century later representations of Chaucer s works Victorian representations of Anne Boleyn and media such as Star Wars and Game of Thrones As a whole this collection models and demonstrates the value of a new and self aware approach to medievalism enriched by a conscious and critical redeployment of reception theories and methodologies
