May Alcott's beloved classic Little Women featuring four sisters from a modern American Muslim family living in Georgia. When Jameela Mirza is picked to be feature editor of her middle school newspaper, she's one step closer to being an award-winning journalist like her late grandfather. The problem is her editor in chief keeps shooting down her article ideas. Jameela's assigned to write about the new boy in school who has a cool British accent but doesn't share much and wonders how she'll make his story gripping enough to enter into a national media contest. Jameela, along with her three sisters, is devastated when their father needs to take a job overseas away from their cozy Georgia home for six months. Missing him makes Jameela determined to write an epic article, one to make her dad extra proud. But when her younger sister gets seriously ill, Jameela's world turns upside down. And as her hunger for fame looks like it might cost her a blossoming friendship, Jameela questions what matters most and whether she's cut out to be a journalist at all.

Tahoe Tales of Bygone Days and Memorable Pioneers Don Lane, 2004-11-24 The manuscript is a collection of short stories that were originally prepared as part of a radio program that began in the early 1980s as a summer informational and educational program for Tahoe area residents and tourists. Between 1982 and 1985 the author presented more than one hundred radio tales about Tahoe's history and the environment over Tahoe radio station KTHO AM 590. Lane returned to the radio airways in 1995 this time with radio station KOWL AM 1490 and has since broadcast more than two thousand tales. Don Lane's Tales of Tahoe The manuscript is a distinctive mixture of stories about the events large and small that shaped and changed the region and simple stories about the people that once lived in our region during the past 150 years. Stories about pioneer men and women, gold seekers and adventurers. Tales about the unique characters the famous like the Donner's, Mark Twain, John Sutter and James Marshall and John Fremont along with the powerful and the forgotten. The manuscript weaves serious history with light hearted tales with a minimum of editorializing as the emphasis has been on maintaining historical integrity and authenticity. The stories gathered from old journals, archives and historical records are both entertaining and educational. And hopefully too, this manuscript will contribute to an increased awareness of
