Taliban Islam Oil And The New Great Game In Central Asia:

Taliban Ahmed Rashid,2000 The American bombing of terrorist bases in Afghanistan under the protection of the Islamic fundamentalist Taliban movement has brought the Taliban into focus as the most radical and extreme Islamic movement in the world The movement its leaders and its aims are surrounded by secrecy Taliban Ahmed Rashid,2010-04-20 Rashid brings the shadowy world of the Taliban into sharp focus He explains its rise to power its impact on Afghanistan and the region its role in oil and gas company decisions and the effects of changing American attitudes toward the Taliban Jihadi Groups, Nuclear Pakistan, and the New Great Game , Jihadi Groups, Nuclear Pakistan, and the New Great Game Mohammed E. Ahrari,2001 For the United States and other nations concerned with security in South and Central Asia one of the most ominous trends has been the growing influence of Jihadist groups in Pakistan which feel obligated to wage holy war against everything that they perceive as non Islamic Their objective would be a Pakistani government similar to the Taliban regime in Afghanistan The danger this would pose to regional stability and U S interests is clear The author assesses Jihadi groups from the framework of a new Great Game for influence in Central Asia involving an array of states He argues that if this competition leads to increased violence outside states including the United States could be drawn in On the other hand if the region stabilizes it could provide solid economic and political partners for the United States A well designed American strategy Ahrari contends might help avoid crises or catastrophe SSI summary Central Asia Boris Z. Rumer,2015-04-15 The societies of Central Asia are besieged from within and without The political elites virtually unchanged despite the transition to independent statehood battle radical Islamic movements and other oppositional threats that are continuously fueled by economic instability corruption environmental deterioration and the collapse of social services This survey of political economic and social development in Central Asia offers geopolitical context unparalleled coverage and analytical depth to our understanding of a region that appears to be rapidly spiraling into crisis Ethnic Identity and National Conflict in China A. Acharya,R. Gunaratna,W. Pengxin,2010-06-21 While not discounting the potency of the radical Islamic religious discourse in fuelling the contemporary wave of terrorism this book makes an attempt to explain terrorism in China as an ethno nationalist conflict rooted in issues involving minority identity However a largely domestic conflict is being hijacked by the radical Islamists Falling Terrorism and Rising Conflicts Hooman Peimani,2003-09-30 The Taliban s fall and the massive American military and political presence in South and West Asia have created grounds for a polarization into two camps India Iran and Russia to which China is affiliated and the United States and Pakistan In Peimani s analysis their incompatible interests will push them towards confrontations with regional and international implications Contrary to expectations the fall of the Taliban did not bring peace and stability to Afghanistan The Afghan interim government is simply too weak to act as a central government this results in the re emergence of warlords turf wars and the expansion of drug trafficking This unstable situation may well result in the emergence of Taliban like groups Added to this the threat of the spillover of instability from Afghanistan into neighboring regions on the one hand and the rapid expansion of American military and political power in Central Asia the Caucasus the Persian Gulf Afghanistan and Pakistan on the other have created fear among the regional powers The stated indefinite stay of American forces well after the end of the anti terrorist war in Afghanistan has worsened that fear as it reflected the American government's plan to pursue certain strategic interests unrelated to that war Consequently as Peimani shows the regional anti terrorist coalition has disintegrated in the absence of a common objective to help focus the region Fear of the long term American objectives and those of its Pakistani ally in South and West Asia incompatible with those of the regional powers have facilitated the creation of two camps consisting of Iran India and Russia to which China is affiliated and Pakistan and the United States Respectively these implicit and explicit camps are likely to collide over their regional interests especially in the strategically important energy producing Persian Gulf and Caspian Sea regions
