The Phenomena Of Sin And Temptation:

William Desmond's Philosophy between Metaphysics, Religion, Ethics, and Aesthetics Dennis Vanden Auweele, 2018-10-08 This volume collects seventeen new essays by well established and junior scholars on the philosophical relevance of metaxological philosophy and its main proponent William Desmond The volume mines metaxological thought for its salience in contemporary discussions in Continental philosophy specifically in the fields of metaphysics philosophy of religion ethics and aesthetics Among others topics under discussion include the goodness of being the existence and nature of God and the aesthetic dimensions of human becoming Interest in metaxological philosophy has been on the rise in recent years and this volume provides both a practical introduction and thorough engagements with it by experts in the field The volume concludes with a series of responses by William Desmond on the issues raised by the contributors The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam, 1897 The Genesis of Heidegger's Being and Time Theodore Kiesel, 1995-03-24 This book ten years in the making is the first factual and conceptual history of Martin Heidegger's Being and Time 1927 a key twentieth century text whose background until now has been conspicuously absent Through painstaking investigation of European archives and private correspondence Theodore Kiesel provides an unbroken account of the philosopher's early development and progress toward his masterwork Beginning with Heidegger's 1915 dissertation Kiesel explores the philosopher's religious conversion during the bleak war years the hermeneutic breakthrough in the war emergency semester of 1919 the evolution of attitudes toward his phenomenological mentor Edmund Husserl and the shifting orientations of the three drafts of Being and Time Discussing Heidegger's little known reading of Aristotle as well as his last minute turn to Kant and to existentialist terminology Kiesel offers a wealth of narrative detail and documentary evidence that will be an invaluable factual resource for years to come A major event for philosophers and Heidegger specialists the publication of Kiesel's book allows us to jettison the stale view of Being and Time as a great book frozen in time and instead to appreciate the erratic starts finite high points and tentative conclusions of what remains a challenging philosophical path Dogmatics II Emil Brunner, 2025-04-24 One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner's Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The first volume serves as an introduction to Brunner's view of dogmatics setting out the nature position and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of God In detailed vigorous explanation Brunner considers the nature and will of God including his name his holiness his wisdom and his glory Thorough insightful and extensive this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series The second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man's position within creation sin and its consequences and the saving work of Jesus Brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals and his detailed thoughtful arguments are designed as he says to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the Love of God revealed in Jesus Christ The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God's self revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self communication Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers

The Methodist Review ,1896 Church Quarterly Review ,1897 Notes on books
 Longmans, Green and co,1897 The American Church Almanac and Year Book ,1897 Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology

Salvation Through Temptation Benjamin E. Heidgerken, 2021-06-04 Salvation through Temptation describes the development of predominant Greek and Latin Christian conceptions of temptation and of the work of Christ to heal and restore humankind in the context of that temptation focusing on Maximus the Confessor and Thomas Aquinas as well developed examples of Greek and Latin thought on these matters Maximus and Thomas represent two trajectories concerning the woundedness of human emotionality in the wake of the primordial human sin Heidgerken argues that Maximus stands in essential continuity with earlier Greek ascetic theology which conceives of the weakness of fallen humankind in demonological categories so that the Pauline law of sin is bound to external demonic agents that act upon the human mind through thoughts desires and sensory impressions For Thomas on the other hand this wound consists primarily of an internal disordering of the faculties that results from the withdrawal of original grace concupiscence or the fomes peccati Yet even in this framework the devil plays a significant role in Thomas's account of postlapsarian temptation On the basis of these differing frameworks for human temptation Heidgerken demonstrates the centrality of Christ's exemplarity in the Greek account and the centrality of Christ's moral perfections in the Latin account As a consequence of these emphases the Greek tradition of Maximus places distinct limits on the ability of human emotionality even that of Christ to be perfected in this life whereas Thomas's approach allows Christ to completely embody a perfected form of human emotionality in his earthly life Reciprocally Thomas's account of Christ's moral perfections and virtue places distinct limits on his affirmation of Christ's experience of postlapsarian temptation whereas Maximus's account allows for Christ to experience interior forms of temptation that more closely mirror the concrete moral experiences and circumstances of fallen human beings Salvation through Temptation recommends a retrieval of early ascetic theology and demonology as the best contemporary systematic and ecumenically viable approach to Christ's temptation and victory over the devil
