The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcator of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture

The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aborigines and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia Sand In Our Souls

Leone Huntsman,2013-05-09 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach s significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman s provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here The Bodysurfers

Robert Drewe,2001-09-03 These stories breathe Taut yet teeming with life they are shot through with gritty phrases that catch at one s throat Sydney Morning Herald Set among the surf and sandhills of the Australian beach and the tidal changes of three generations of the Lang family this bestselling collection of short stories is an Australian classic The Bodysurfers vividly evokes the beach with the scent of the suntan oil the sting of the sun and a lazy sensuality all the while hinting at a deep undercurrent of suburban malaise From first publication these poignant and seductive stories marked a major change in Australian literature

Structures and Strategies Lloyd Davis,Susan Beth McKay,1996 A text which provides an introduction to academic writing Offers a semester length course that builds and refines university and college students abilities in writing and research skills Comprises explanations of concepts and genres and contains a range of exercises and essay topics to develop and explore these ideas Contains examples of model texts for class discussion and analysis as well as a chapter on accessing computer based catalogues and indexes for research Includes an index The authors are lecturers in the fields of cultural studies communication and English at the University of Qld Also available in hardback Australian Citizenship Brian Galligan, Winsome Roberts, 2004 Australians have much to celebrate in the hundred years of their citizenship but also a good deal to be ashamed of The authors argue that good citizenship depends on moral citizens able to discern between what is worthy of respect and pride and what is shameful in national life Galligan and Roberts from Uni of Melbourne
