Millar Ronald William Millar,1972 The Great Endarkenment Elijah Millgram,2015-05-01 Human beings have always been specialists but over the past two centuries division of labor has become deeper ubiquitous and much more fluid The form it now takes brings in its wake a series of problems that are simultaneously philosophical and practical having to do with coordinating the activities of experts in different disciplines who do not understand one another Because these problems are unrecognized and because we do not have solutions for them we are on the verge of an age in which decisions that depend on understanding more than one discipline at a time will be made badly Since so many decisions do require multidisciplinary knowledge these philosophical problems are urgent Some of the puzzles that have traditionally been on philosophers agendas have to do with intellectual devices developed to handle less extreme forms of specialization Two of these necessity and the practical ought are given extended treatment in Elijah Millgram s The Great Endarkenment In this collection of essays both previously published and new Millgram pays special attention to ways a focus on cognitive function reframes familiar debates in metaethics and metaphysics Consequences of hyperspecialization for the theory of practical rationality for our conception of agency and for ethics are laid out and discussed An Afterword considers whether and how philosophers can contribute to solving the very pressing problems created by contemporary division of labor These always interesting often brilliant and contentious essays focus on the question of how we need to reason practically if we are to flourish given Millgram's account of our human nature and of the environments that we inhabit The originality of his thought is matched by his clarity and his wit Alasdair MacIntyre University of Notre Dame Alan Moore Smoky man, Gary Spencer Millidge, Omar Martini, 2003 Alan Moore Portrait of an Extraordinary Gentleman contains comic strips illustrations essays articles anecdotes and other pieces contributed by top American English and international comics creators paying tribute to the master of comic book writing Alan Moore creator of Watchmen and From Hell as he celebrates his 50th year Over a hundred contributors include Neil Gaiman Will Eisner Bill Sienkiewicz Dave Gibbons Denis Kitchen David Lloyd Jim Valentino Sergio Toppi Bryan Talbot Steve Parkhouse Mark Millar Howard Cruse James Kochalka Jos Villarrubia Sam Kieth Dave Sim Oscar Zarate DJ Paul Gambaccini and novelist Darren Shan to name just a few The book jacket will feature a new photograph by Piet Corr and other features will include interviews biographies and new and rare photographs Bones of Contention Marvin L. Lubenow, 2004-10 While evolutionists point to every new discovery of humanlike fossils as further evidence to support the theory that people evolved from apelike creatures Marvin L Lubenow contends that the fossils do more to disprove evolutionary theory than otherwise In Bones of Contention Lubenow offers readers of all backgrounds a readable argument for the creationist view of the origins of humankind that addresses all angles of the issue In this new edition Lubenow has thoroughly updated and revised his original material to reflect a dozen years of evolutionist theory and modern paleoanthropology Scholars and laypeople alike will find solid answers grounded in research to all of their tough questions
