Henry Woodd Nevinston,1911 The Piper in Peace and War C. A. Malcolm,1927 The Bagpipes Richard McLauchlan,2025-04-24 In the early second century CE someone was described as playing a pipe with a bag tucked under his armpit That man the first named piper in history was the Roman Emperor Nero Since then this improbable conflation of bag and sticks has become one of the most beloved and contested instruments of all time When another piping emperor Tsar Peter the Great watched his pet bear take its last breath he decided the creature would live on as a bagpipe This rich and vivid history tells the story of an instrument boasting over 130 varieties yet commonly associated with just one form and one country Scotland and its familiar Great Highland Bagpipe In fact the pipes are played across the globe and their story is a highly diverse one which illuminates society in remarkable unexpected ways Richard McLauchlan charts the rise of women pipers investigates how class privilege and capitalism have shaped the world of piping and explores how the meaning of a national instrument can shift with the currents of a people s identity The vibrancy and inventiveness characterising today s pipers still speak to the potency of this fabled and once feared instrument to which McLauchlan is our surefooted guide

Kassimeris,2016-03-23 This research collection provides a comprehensive study of important strategic cultural ethical and philosophical aspects of modern warfare It offers a refreshing analysis of key issues in modern warfare not only in terms of the conduct of war and the wider complexities and ramifications of modern conflict but also concepts of war the crucial shifts
