The Person Inside:

The Person Inside Myra H. Doyle, 2024-05-16 It is human nature to want and expect to be loved and accepted God made us that way Because God loves us and accepts us we expect family and friends to feel the same way That doesn't always happen not even in Christian homes We are spirit and we have a soul and we live in a body There is a uniqueness that God places in each one of us It is what makes us different from one another Our innateness is created by God That is what is inside the person Abuse can cloud and even destroy the person inside Nothing is more personal than abuse It is an intentional direct attack on the personhood of an individual It is the canceling the erasing of the naturalness of a person The abuser is committing a do over on the child or spouse or whomever whether it be physical sexual or psychological abuse I am a delivered and healed survivor of child abuse I received deliverance and inner healing from Jesus Christ He has set the person inside free to be who he created me to be And he can do the same for you My hope is that everyone be delivered from their past and healed of their wounds

The Man Inside Graham Apthorpe, 2019-07-05 Graham Apthorpe's account of the Cowra outbreak is superb Narrated in a fresh way in elegant and original prose and with a wonderful gift for taking the unexpected angle it does great service to this astonishing Australian Japanese event and will have a honoured place in the canon of fascinating works on the incident Thomas Keneally The War in the Pacific has turned thousands of the previously invincible Japanese soldiers are now being captured in New Guinea and interned at the Cowra Prisoner of War Camp Unlike other POWs the traditional Japanese Bushido Code and their fanaticism leaves them ill equipped for surrender and imprisonment Ashamed subdued and sullen one man Second Lieutenant Maseo Naka is an exception Obstructing the Australian authorities at every turn he was the first Japanese soldier to escape from Cowra This action becomes the precursor for the more than 1000 Japanese prisoners who escape in the bloodiest Breakout of World War II that ultimately saw 234 Japanese and four Australian guards killed His escape and the defiance guilt and shame that motivated it led to his court martial Naka nevertheless stands out as very human another tragic victim of the global inferno that was World War II Adhering to the Samurai Code of Bushido he doggedly undertakes actions that he views as necessary for the maintenance of his honour Through the insights of those around Naka together with new research including the personal accounts of Australian interrogators the author shows how this handsome loner provided the impetus for the dramatic events in the early hours of August 5 1944 where hundreds of Japanese soldiers stormed the Camp defences for honour or death
